(Address direct: 2202 W. 10, Austin 78703)

The Society was organized in 1960 as a non-profit organization chartered by the State of Texas. Its purposes are to collect and preserve genealogical and historical information of Texas, particularly that which pertains to the city of Austin, Travis County, and adjoining counties; to instruct and assist members in genealogical research; and to publish public and private records. Gifts and bequests are tax-deductible.

Membership is open to all upon payment of annual dues of $5.00. Family memberships are available to members of an immediate family in the same household for $7.50. No special rate for libraries. DUES ARE PAYABLE JANUARY FIRST.

Meetings are held in the Howson Branch Public Library, 2500 Exposition Boulevard, at 7:30 p.m. on the 4th Tuesday of each month with the exception of December. Visitors are welcome.

The Society's Quarterly is published in March, June, September and December and is sent free to members. Additional single issues and indexes are available. Members are urged to submit genealogical information and queries directly to the Editor (address above). Contributions will be accepted at the discretion of the Editor, and neither she nor the Society can be responsible for the accuracy of material so submitted.

ADDRESS ALL CORRESPONDENCE (except to Editor) TO:

NOTICE! This is the last issue of your current subscription. AGS's fiscal year is concurrent with the calendar year, which makes it easier to remember when your dues are payable.
This record, found in Texas State Archives at Austin, follows that published in AGS Quarterly Vol. XII, No. 2, June 1971. This part was copied in March 1972, and covers pages 433-435.

In the front of the record book appears the following: "The First Mortuary Warrant to Confederate Pensioners was issued on May 10, 1917. Warrant #1 for $30 was issued on account of the death of J. M. Sharp, File #10606, Cherokee County."

The book is arranged alphabetically by counties of Texas and chronologically, as issued, in each county. Claimants were sometimes undertakers but most often were relatives. Death occurred about the date of the warrant.

File numbers refer to the Confederate pension files, often full of genealogical data and usually including the application for warrant, date of death, where died, often relationship of person in whose home pensioner died, and where buried. Veterans may have died or been buried elsewhere but apparently had applied for their pensions in Travis County. Some of the warrant applications are missing from the pension folders.

In September 1936, payments were not to exceed $100, but in May 1947 the limit was raised by the Legislature to $200.

Pensioners who lived in a Confederate Home were assigned a number preceded by H. Information in parentheses below the line is not in the Register, but shows discrepancies in spelling that Mrs. Walker found in the death certificate, the pension file, or its index.

NEW HOPE MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH

AGS member Mrs. Dan Moody Swenson (nee Helen Mozelle Smothers) has performed a prodigious labor of love in photocopying and indexing the 1868-1934 Minutes of New Hope Missionary Baptist Church at Leander. We regret that space will not permit reprinting more of this interesting record here, but those who find wanted names in the Index may write to Mrs. Swenson at Route 3, Box 38-T, Leander, TX 78641. Mrs. Swenson wishes to express thanks to Mrs. Roy Smith of Leander for lending the books, and we all are indebted to both these ladies.

"1868 Book of Record"

"We the brethren in the neighborhood of blockhouse, Williamson County, Texas, being desirous of being constituted into a church did call a presbytery consisting of elders Thomas H. Bacon, William Steele and J. Enochs—who did on the 22nd day of October A.D. 1868 constitute the following named brethren and sisters into a missionary baptist church of Christ to wit

James M. Trammel
Elizabeth Trammel
Jesse R. Hicks
W. J. Hicks
S. J. Tyler
Isaac D. Barefoot"

The first clerk elected was Isaac D. Barefoot; Brothers James M. Trammell and Jesse R. Hicks were elected deacons; the first presbytery consisted of Elders Thomas H. Bacon and J. Enochs.

It may be well to mention that on many of these pages the capital I's and J's are practically indistinguishable. Indexed below are the members who are mentioned in the minutes through the years, divided into periods of 1868-1899 and 1900-1934.

One of our energetic newer members, Jo Tuttle, gave your editor a copy of Willard Heiss's column in Tri-State Trader which I will be glad to share with anyone interested. It comprehensively covers the subject of sources of Baptist records, mainly in the Indiana area. Addresses that we Southerners might find helpful are: (1) American Baptist Historical Society, 1106 South Goodman St., Rochester, NY 14620; (2) Historical Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention, Dargan-Carver Library, 127 9th Ave., Nashville, TN 37204; (3) James P. Boyce Centennial Library, 2825 Lexington Rd., Louisville, KY 40206. Thanks to Jo and to Dr. Heiss.

In Memoriam

Austin Genealogical Society extends its sympathy to the families of Mrs. Agnes Sutherland and Mr. W. L. Gowen.

AGS member Mrs. E. E. Gunter offers a helpful suggestion to the Society: The Grackle Book Store, on Ben White Boulevard in Southwood Mall, has some catalogues of books on genealogy and heraldry (ship passenger lists, basic reference books) which can be ordered from there. The store is open evenings--different closing hours, so you'd better call for times and directions.
ONE HUNDRED YEARS
St. Mary's Catholic Church, Austin, Texas

One Hundred Years, the interesting history of St. Mary's Catholic Church which was written by Mrs. Mary Starr Barkley and published in 1952, is virtually a panorama of the history of the City of Austin itself. AGS member Mrs. Marcella D. Spiller of 2605 Euclid Avenue very graciously made a typescript and submitted it for the use of the Society. There is a copy of the book at the Central Building of Austin Public Library in the Austin-Travis County Collection, and the typescript will be donated to the Genealogy Division of Texas State Library, so it may be examined in your choice of places.

In 1852, the Rev. Michael Sheehan, first resident priest, began building a Catholic church at the northeast corner of Brazos and Ash (now Ninth) streets, and named it St. Patrick's. During the Civil War, Father Nicholas Feltin was instrumental in changing the name to St. Mary's of the Immaculate Conception, which it remains.

Since Roman Catholic Fathers, Brothers, and Sisters are not ancestors, it was deemed pertinent to genealogists to abstract only the data about laymen mentioned in the book. And, as we were working from a typescript and did not have access to the printed book, we cannot give page numbers, but have merely alphabetized the names:

- Albrecht, Frank—photographer of this history.

Mrs. Llewellyn Rose and your editor attended the 12th Annual Genealogical Exchange and Gathering of the Scottish Clans of Texas at Salado 11 November. The principal speakers were Mrs. Harry Joseph Morris ("Heraldry in the Republic of Texas"), Mrs. Buford Curtis ("How To Publish Your Family History"), Dr. Malcolm McLean ("The Meaning of San Jacinto"), and Mr. C. Geo. Younkin ("Research in U.S. Regional Archives at Fort Worth").
These were interesting and informative papers--we only wish we had space to give in-depth reports on them. It is hoped that our Society can be represented in February at Denton when Mr. Younkin will head up a meeting on the subject of archival preservation. We urge all of you to plan to attend the next Gathering of the Clans and Genealogical Exchange in November 1973. . . it's a real treat!

WARREN WORKSHOP AT LUFKIN--If any of you missed hearing the delightful Mrs. Mary Bondurant Warren at our workshop last spring, here is your chance to recoup your loss.

ADMISSION TO JANUARY MEETING: One or more queries for AGS quarterly!
DECEASED LAND CLAIMANTS

In 1858 D. E. E. Braman, an attorney in Matagorda, Texas, published a book entitled Braman's Information about Texas (Philadelphia: J. B. Lippincott & Co.). On page 171, the author stated that he had evidence of hundreds of claimants to Texas land. Some heirs of persons who had died in Texas were entitled to as much as 4,000—5,000 acres, Mr. Braman wrote, and they were invited to address him if they wanted any legal business done in Texas.

For references, the following were cited: Hon. James C. Wilson, Comm. Court of Claims, Austin; Hon. Stephen Crosby, Comm. General Land Office, Austin; Hon. James H. Bell, Judge First Judicial District, Brazoria; Hon. Matthew Talbot, Chief Justice, Matagorda County; Nelson, Clements, & Co., New York; Browning, Stewart, & Allen, New York.

Mr. Willard Heiss complained in his column in Tri-State Trader that our publication lacks a name. True, we don't have one printed on the cover, Mr. Heiss, but we refer to it as "AGS Quarterly," with each letter pronounced separately. We wouldn't call it "Ags"—not in Austin, home of the Texas Longhorns who are arch rivals of the Aggies of College Station!

HAPPY HUNTING GROUND—How's that for the title of a page in AGS Quarterly for queries? If each member will bring at least one query to the January meeting, we'll have a backlog of sufficient size to maintain a decent query page. Be sure to have at least one date and a place for each family. Just "Browns of TN" is a waste of your time and our space, so include enough data to identify your family, but don't ramble on tediously—that turns off the reader also.

In composing your queries, put all surnames in capitals in alphabetical order first. Use 2-letter state abbreviations, and end with your name and address. Type or write clearly to avoid errors.

The following, A VALID QUERY, is an example:

DAVID-PAGE-PEARSON-WHITE. William Wittich David of Mart, TX, on 29 Apr 1938 made a sworn statement that his great-aunt Mary White Pearson, b. 1790, told him that wife of Henry White (b. 24 Apr 1724, d. 17 June 1802, Bedford Co, VA) was named Celia and that she was "a Page of Virginia." Seeking identity of Celia Page.—Graham Gordon Landrum, 2115 Edgemont, Bristol, TN 37620

KERR-LAIRD-MARRS-PICKENS. John Kerr (d. ca 1770) m. Lucy Pickens 1730. Their dau Letitia baptized 22 Sep 1748; m. (1) James Laird (fatally wounded at Battle of Kings Mountain, NC 7 Oct 1780); m. (2) Samuel Marrs. Wish death date of John Kerr, and any other data re these people.—Graham Gordon Landrum, 2115 Edgemont, Bristol TN 37620

SOURCES OF GENEALOGICAL RECORDS
By Seth D. Breeding

It seems that most genealogies have been compiled to some extent if one can only find them. Frequently genealogies are found in unlikely places.

The magazine FRONTIER TIMES began publication in October 1923 at Bandera, Texas. Especially during the early years of publication that magazine contained genealogies and much historical material helpful in compiling genealogies. A complete file of FRONTIER TIMES is available for use at the Barker Texas History Center, University of Texas at Austin. A few examples of useful records found in this magazine are given.

FRONTIER TIMES, v. 15, no. 2, p. 53, November 1937
"The Trail of the Chisholms," by T. U. Taylor
This is the genealogy of the remarkable Jesse Chisholm (1806-1868), the half-Cherokee, for whom the Chisholm Trail was named.

FRONTIER TIMES, v. 15, no. 3, p. 99, December 1937
"John Simpson Chisum and His Kin," by T. U. Taylor
This is the genealogy of John Simpson Chisum (1824-1884), famous Texas and New Mexico cattleman (but had no connection with Chisholm Trail).

FRONTIER TIMES, v. 16, no. 2, p. 231, March 1939
"Mrs. Mary E. Billingsley: Pioneer Mother," by Maude Wallis Traylor
Considerable genealogy and history of Winslow Turner, early Texan, and related families.

An important source of genealogical records, usually unpublished, is The University of Texas Archives, Austin. One should consult the book The University of Texas Archives, A Guide to the Historical Manuscript Collections in The University of Texas Library, Volume I, by Chester V. Kielman, University of Texas Press, 1967. A listing of 338 holdings of genealogical records in the archives is given on pages 407 and 408. A copy of this book will be found in most Texas libraries. An example of a few of the genealogical holdings with archives reference number is given.

2 R 93: MANTON, Edward, collection.
Contains genealogies for Manton and Jenckes (Jenks) families.

4 N 65: Genealogical Charts, by T. U. Taylor
Contains charts for: The Upson Kin, Jesse Chisholm, and Perkins (Parkins), Moon and related families.

2 K 284: Taylor (T. U.) Papers, 1872-1941
Contains genealogies identified as follows:
The Pettue-Hopkins Chapter
The Estill Family
The Parkins Family of Virginia
The Moon Family of Albemarle County, Virginia
Lyle-McClung Chapter
The Taylor Family (including the Dickey family)
Trail of the Chisholms (Study of the family of Jesse Chisholm).

Remember - The University of Texas Archives had 335 other holdings containing genealogical records as of 1967. And the holdings have been growing since 1967.
BOOK REVIEWS

Anyone who has a genealogy-related book which he would like reviewed here may send it directly to Mrs. H. H. Rugeley, 2202 W. 10, Austin, TX 78703. Sending books or letter to the editor via Box 774 entails considerable delay, as I do not have a key to the postoffice box. After being reviewed, books will be donated to the Genealogical Collection of Texas State Library, and thus are tax-deductible for the author. No books will be reviewed from advertising literature alone. AGS members who would like to participate in the reviewing program may call me at 477-7313 between 4:30 and 7:30 p.m., or weekends.

ix + 975 pages, 8 1/2 x 11 inches. Indexed; bound in Style R-53 McBee Binder.

Printed in Charlottesville, VA, 1969. $30.00, postpaid from the author at Lotos Lakes, Brightwood, VA 22715.

This handsome genealogy contains records of the John Skelton family compiled during fifty years by descendants. It has excellent primary and secondary sources, except Virkus's Compendium of American Genealogy, which is regarded as suspect by most patriotic societies.

Colonel and Mrs. John W. Skelton are well qualified to present the fruits of their long and wide-ranging genealogical research. He attended University of Alabama, Command and General Staff School, Armed Forces Staff College, and George Washington University. She earned her B.A. and M.A. degrees from the University of California, and was a research analyst during World War II. The Skeltons traveled throughout the United States, tracking down official records and interviewing many Skelton descendants.

The huge (3 1/2 inches thick) book is easily followed, with a full page for nearly every descendant, whose name is at the top of the page. It can be opened to add more pages or to take out a page and type in additional data as discovered. The type is extremely legible and well spaced. One aspect of the format was a little disturbing to this reviewer in that for each living person listed, it reads: "Died: Living."

Persons who can connect with the lines set forth herein may find proof that makes them eligible for membership in such societies as Colonial Dames of the Seventeenth Century, Huguenot Society of the Founders of Manakin, Sons/Daughters of the American Revolution, and United Daughters of the Confederacy.

In addition to the names listed above (John Skelton married Rebecca Harbour 1793 or 1794), this reviewer noticed 18th century records for a Lewis line. Of interest to Austinites are the handsome photograph and chart of Judge Byron George Skelton who married Ruth Alice Thomas in Austin in 1931.

The index is of exceptionally high quality, being over 50 pages of well spaced, full size type, a separate line for each person of a given name under the surname. The searcher is not left in doubt about which pages refer to which John, for example.

There is an interesting chapter on "Other Skeltons," and some valuable general background material on the Skelton family in England.

All in all, the book makes us outsiders long for Skelton ancestors!

THE TENNESSEE VALLEY HISTORICAL REVIEW--"The Magazine Devoted to the Exploration and Enjoyment of the History of Tennessee and Her Neighbors." Edited by James A. Crutchfield. 60 pages; published quarterly. Single copy $2; yearly subscription $7. Address: Circulation Department, Box 3013, Nashville, TN 37219.
This is a handsome slick-page publication, profusely illustrated. Its regular features include Editorial, Meet the Authors, Letters to the Editor, History in the News, Tennessee Prehistory, Highway History, Forgotten Heroes and Heroines, and Book Reviews.

The first two issues contain articles about the Tennessee State Museum, the mysterious Melungeons, restorations in Nashville, a Civil War picture album, James K. Polk, William Walker, Civil War railroads, Tennessee Indians, Andrew Johnson, and an old mansion.

All articles seem carefully researched, literately and interestingly written, and appropriately illustrated. The format is pleasing, with just enough variation in typeface to avoid monotony, and virtually no typographical errors.

The Tennessee Valley Historical Review is heartily recommended to all who are interested in Tennessee—as so many Texans are.

This review is done from my personal copies. It is to be hoped that Texas State Library will subscribe to it.

QUERY NAME INDEX is a new publication to start in April 1973, for the purpose of giving wider distribution to queries appearing in genealogical publications. They plan to start with 80 periodicals, indexing queries in this style:

MORRISON, William NJ PA OH, Permelia PA OH, James OH 23; John VA MO OR, Mary MO OR, Enoch, Emily, Everett all OR 72; Mathew VT IL 23

All the names up to the first semicolon were found in the periodical which they code as 23, thus:

23 Seattle Genealogical Society, Box 549, Seattle, WA 98111, Vol 22, #2, Dec 72, Quarterly Bulletin, membership $5, multiple area records.

When a reader locates an item of interest, he can refer to the publication at his library, order a copy, or write to QNI for a photocopy of the query. Subscribers to QNI are to be allowed 3 name requests per issue at 10c per photocopy. Price for subsequent requests is not yet determined. Pre-publication price is $4 for four issues per year. Address HOMESTEAD PRESS, Drawer 220, Kenmore, WA 98028.

We give this free advertisement because we think it will be so helpful to our members that AGS intends to be a party to this service by putting them on our mailing list. Thus our queries in AGS will receive nationwide attention. Remember, queries do not need to pertain to Texas, although the records we publish do (except Bible records).

In this section are noted items about Texans which have appeared in genealogical publications of other states. Most of us do not get to see all the exchange quarterlies, so we take this means of calling to your attention quarterlies which you may go to Texas State Library and read thoroughly. Many thanks to the respective editors for permission to reprint these bits.

In Settlers of Northeast Alabama, Vol. IX No. 1, a query from Mr. Harry D. Roberts, 3833 Lynwood Ave., Orange, CA 92669, states that John Roberts (b. 1803 GA) m. Mary Delk (b. 1810 GA). He d. 15 Nov 1866 in Fannin Co., TX; and she d. 10 Jan 1867; both buried at Sandy Cemetery 14 miles nw of Bonham. Their children were: Amanda M. E. (m. W. A. Savage), Mallissa P./Eliza (m. 1st David Dade & 2nd Mr. Hodges), Louisa I., Isabella (m. Joe Hollingsworth), David, William, Thomas (m. Mary A.), Lucy Johnston (m. 1st Stephan Randolph Sowell & 2nd James M. Clymer), John Calhoun (m. Mary Ann Vankirk). The query contains much more data.

In the same issue (p. 41) is a query from Mr. James W. Bradford Sr., 2211 Louise St., Alvin, TX 77511, asking for the parents of James J. Bradford, b. 2 Jan 1832 St. Clair Co., AL; d. 17 Dec 1888 Polk Co., TX; m. 2 Jan 1867 in Polk Co. Mary Louise Slade who d. in 1932, ae. 88.

Georgia Genealogical Society Quarterly Vol. 8 #1 has an interesting list of Georgia-born families who are found in the 1850 census of Texas. One wonders why, in this day of postal guides and atlases, the names of eight Texas counties are misspelled!

The Trackers, published by Mt. Hood (OR) Genealogical Forum, printed the history of a World War I regiment as they began training at Fort Vancouver, WA, and later sailed for France and Germany, in numbers 2 and 3 of Volume Twelve. This was a reprint from The Sapper, regimental paper of 318th Engineers, U.S. Army. In No. 4, Summer 1972 issue, page 97, appears the following roster of men from Texas:

- Bedinger, Chas. A., sgt, Co F, Elena, TX
- Blackman, Edwin K., sgt lcl, Co F, c/o S.P. Co., Houston

Central Illinois Genealogical Quarterly Vol. VII #3 appears a query from Mrs. D. M. McKay, 618 Rayburn Dr, San Antonio 78221, asking for the children of Nancy Melugin and John T. Scott, who married 1855 in Jasper Co, MO, and removed to Texas.

"To write one's own history ought to be more observed. It would be interesting and sometimes of great value. . . . How I would like to know something concerning my ancestors for generations back! But it was never customary (sic) among what is called the low classes of society to make a genealogical legacy to their descendents. My conviction is that no matter how humble the position of individuals may be there are always facts or thoughts in their lives worth being transmitted to the future. Historians would be greatly benefited if they could find among the records of all families, the narration of customs, habits and historical facts that are unknown or forgotten."

This paragraph is from Genealogical History of the Vallet Family, written by E. Vallet in 1891, and published in An Icarian Communist in Nauvoo by Emile Vallet (Springfield: Illinois State Historical Society, 1971).
AGS PROGRAMS

In August our efficient program chairman, Professor William J. Carter, met an emergency with aplomb when the scheduled speaker was unable to be present. Mr. Carter quickly assembled data for an interesting talk on the Huguenot colonists in America. The Edict of Nantes (nantz), issued 13 April 1598 by Henry IV of France, proclaimed toleration of Protestants. This edict was revoked by Louis XIV in October 1685, which gave rein to terrible persecution of non-Catholics, causing mass migration to the Low Countries and to England. During the following two centuries, many Huguenots (probably derived from a word meaning confederates) came to America. They were welcomed as skilled artisans (glass making, weaving, agricultural improvements). Mr. Carter pointed out that Huguenots were rapidly assimilated into the colonists around them, and illustrated his remarks with data on his own ancestors.

Our September speaker was William Mahan, Professor of Philosophy at UT Austin. He discussed the philosophy of frontier settlers, which stressed the relationship of individuals to God, the land, and other men. The pioneer judged religion for himself, in contrast to the intellectual who accepted the dogma handed down to him. Professor Mahan read some interesting (and sometimes amusing) accounts of camp meetings and the wide-spread revival of the early 1800s.

In October Dr. Tuffly Ellis, a professor of history at UT Austin and managing editor of Southwestern Historical Quarterly, gave us a spell-binding and enlightening survey of the settlement of Texas, pointing out the economic reasons for successive in-migration by Indians, Spaniards, Frenchmen, Canary Islanders, U.S. citizens, Negroes, Germans and other ethnic groups. These reasons included: The Comanches were pushed down from the Rocky Mountains by a conquering tribe; the Spanish were pushed out of New Mexico into El Paso by Indians; the Spanish tried to settle East Texas through fear of French seizure of that area; the Canary Islanders had crop failure due to drought; the 1830-43 depression in the U.S. drove men west in search of cheaper land; the Germans came because of a potato blight in the 1840s and the 1848 revolution in their country, etc.

We are indebted to these gentlemen for outstanding programs.

AGS WORKSHOP on 14 October presented Mrs. Vera Foster of San Antonio as the speaker. A crucial football game seems to have cut into our attendance, but the day was enjoyed by those present. Especially interesting was Mrs. Foster's expose' of old handwriting and abbreviated phrases which so often baffle us.

LITTLE MNEMO SAYS

(More mnemonic devices for uncertain spellers)

(Incidentally, who was Little Nemo? The name just fell out of my ragbag of minor memories--can't recall what garment it is a scrap of.)

ancestor vs. ancestor. Do words ending with or seem more impressive to you than those that end in er? Then show respect for your ancestor by putting him in the VIP category with administrator, guarantor, inheritor, lessor, surveyor, testator, and vendor--all terms frequently used in genealogical writing.

civil vs. cival. Civil, like civic, has two i's. One meaning of civil is polite, but when referring to the Civil War, it is evil.

An Episcopalian is a person who belongs to the Episcopal Church. Episcopal means governed by bishops, and is the adjective used for everything except the members of the church.

heir vs. inherit. Little Mnemo deplores the use of a noun when there is a perfectly good verb to fit the action. The heir inherits; the money the bank lends is a loan. (He says he has given up the fight against using "contact" as a verb, because "to make contact" is rather cumbersome.)

immigrate vs. emigrate. Even if you have never studied Latin, you know from usage that in means toward or into, while ex means out of or away from. Thus, immigrate means to come to, and emigrate means to leave a place. We are most concerned with the arrival of our ancestors, so we seldom need to use the word emigrants.

memento vs. momento. Remember--a memento makes you remember something longer than a moment.

memoriam vs. memorandum. Little Mnemo says, "I am remembering."

Mormon vs. Mormon. We genealogists owe such a debt of gratitude to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints for its tremendous achievements in making records available that the least we can do is to spell the popular name of its members right. Remember that man was in the minority (numerically speaking) at one time in the early history of the church! Hoot, mon, spell it with two o's.

Nine, nineteen, ninety, ninth--All keep the first e except ninth. Play anagrams with that and get thinn--reduced from nine by losing its e.

original vs. original. Some people seem to confuse original with regional. Bear in mind that there is no middle o in origin.

pastime vs. past-time. A pastime is an occupation engaged in to pass the time away now, not sometime in the past.

Scottish vs. Scotch. Did you know that Scotch is a contraction of the word Scottish? The full form is preferred in referring to the Scots themselves, their country, dialect, and literature, etc. The short form, Scotch, is acceptable when used before cap, man or woman, mist, terrier, and whisky. (American "corn squeezins" is spelled whiskey.)

Little Mnemo hopes you all understand that Scotch-Irish is a term that refers to Scots who live or lived in North Ireland, not the offspring of a marriage between a Scotsman and an Irish lass. The two peoples have not intermarried to any great extent. Perhaps if they had, the present tragic conflict would not be occurring.

Genealogy, Anyone? is the name of a column published in the Cairo Messenger in southwestern Georgia. The editors, Floreda Duke Varick and Phyllis Rose Smith, invite free queries pertaining to southeastern U.S.A., and plan to feature such things as mortality tables, marriages, etc. Let them carry your message!
CLIPS AND QUIPS

In this section are reported items of interest "clipped" from exchange quarterlies, and quips (defined as "odd or fantastic things or actions") which your editor hopes will amuse, amaze, or advise the reader. Contributions are invited.

Footprints, the quarterly of Fort Worth Genealogical Society, Vol 15 #3, contains Abstracts of Obituaries and Death Notices from 1874, culled from The Texas Baptist Herald. This issue also describes some 50¢ leaflets which may be purchased from American Association for State and Local History, 1315 8th Ave S., Nashville, TN 37203. A most pertinent one is #9: "Cemetery Transcribing: Preparations and Procedures," by John J. Newman, Indiana State Archivist.

Wisconsin State Genealogical Newsletter (about 50 pages--I'd hate to pay first class postage on that size letter!) Vol 19 #2 has an interesting section on family reunions, being photoreproduction of newspaper accounts or typewritten reports. This is no doubt helpful for those who are seeking contact with living bearers of a given surname.

The quarterly of the Local History and Genealogical Society of Dallas, Vol 18 #3, has many fine cemetery and Bible records, interspersed with highly readable articles, especially pertaining to Howell, Reading, Wellaven, and Rittenhouse families.

********

Vol IX #3 of Deep South Genealogical Quarterly (Mobile, AL) lists deaths found in Mobile newspapers for 1871; the 1839 Mobile City Directory; and rosters of 1860-61 Mobile Fire Department companies. This is a really rich issue.

The Western Link, Vol I #1, published by The Western Texas Genealogical Association in Snyder, contains reminiscences of old-timers, lineage charts, Bible records, cemetery records, and queries. It covers quite a scope in small space. Best wishes to this newcomer in the genealogical field.

Kansas Kin (Riley Co.) Vol X #3 has a comprehensive study of the Burtis family back to 1635--Alburtis (Pietro Caesar Alberto) was the first Italian in New Amsterdam. Included also are Bible records of the Humphrey, Caldwell, and Ahnentafel families; cemetery records; marriage records; queries, etc.
In Vol 7 #3 of North Texas Pioneer (Wichita Falls, TX) is a lengthy interview held in 1957 with Linn A. Boyd, whose family had moved to the area about 1882. Among his ancestral names are Wortham and Stroud. This interview could well serve as a pattern for some of us AGS members to follow in collecting genealogical data from elderly people we know.

Northland Newsletter of Range, MN, for October 1972 contains a timely notice to its membership urging them to write to state legislators asking them to support a bill to keep state and county records open to researchers. This subject should be investigated and pushed in Texas also. The 40-page quarterly contains 9 1/2 pages of names of pioneer settlers with dates of arrival in Hibbing, MN, but, alas--not where they came from. Death dates are given for some of them.

Copper State Bulletin (Southern Arizona Genealogical Society) Vol VII #4 announces that it will publish free from non-members any query not over 50 words--address Box 6027, Tucson, AZ 85716. AGS does the same, until such time as its own membership more fully take advantage of our space to make known their wants.

Orange County (CA) Genealogical Society, in its Vol. IX #3, announced the reprinting of Aid to Place Names, New York State Townships and Counties. This booklet gives the names of 932 townships and the counties they were in, which are not in postal guide, atlases or maps, but were used by rural inhabitants. It also shows name changes and dates of formation of counties. Send $2 to Orange County Genealogical Society, Box 1587, Orange, CA 92667. Also advertised are Georgia Marriage Notices 1830-44 and Georgia Death Notices 1830-55, which are taken from Southern Recorder of Milledgeville. These are over 100 pages each, indexed, $12.50 each or $23 for both.

Dear to every genealogical researcher's heart should be a page in Lifeliner of Riverside, CA, Vol. 8 #1. Entitled Penny Pincher's Pointers, the section lists services and publications costing little or nothing. For example, a free booklet from Library of Congress, General Reference and Bibliography Division, Washington, D.C. 20540: "Out-of-Print Materials and Reprinted Publications"--free. From Publications Sales Branch, NARS, GSA, Washington, D.C. 20408, can be obtained free forms to order military records search, passenger list entries, and census search, and an outline of availability of population and mortality schedules. For $1.25 from same address can be purchased a checklist of land ownership maps.

Another noteworthy article in this issue is one on Indian records available at Sherman Museum in Riverside, of which are printed school registration records 1892-1903. Amusing and informative is a short description of the trials of a 1900 census taker, giving clues to the reasons for errors sometimes (!) encountered in census returns.

The Daily Sun - Austin, Texas - Monday, February 16, 1885 - vol. 1, #40

p.1, col. 1 "City Matters"
The Texas and St. Louis Narrow Guage railroad has opened a ticket office at the Brunswick, with Tom Smith, Jr. as agent.

Mr. Thos. Kavanaugh and Mrs. T.C. McKinney took out a marriage license today. They will be married tomorrow at the Catholic Church.

Ed. C. Hand, a youth whose family is well known here, was up before the recorder this morning, and was fined $25. and costs for carrying a pistol.

The Sun acknowledges with thanks the elegant "remembrance" in the shape of wedding cake, etc., kindly sent this office by Dr. & Mrs. Given.

Senator Knittle is in town again, and is "right side up with care", notwithstanding that little adventure he recently had with his runaway steed.

Col. Babcock's horse ran away yesterday from his moorings in front of the Brunswick, but was captured before he had time to do any damage.

Senator Bell went down to see the granite mountain at Burnet yesterday, and was so much taken with the attractions of the locality that he failed to return with the excursion party. He got left for the train (sic), but will arrive in town today.

p.4, col.3 ... Mr. A. Deffenbaugh kindly furnishes us with the following list of old Texas veterans who have died in Travis County within the last 10 years: Edwin Waller, John M. Domesday vs. Doomsday Book. We all know about the survey made in England by William the Conqueror about 1083-86 for taxation and military recruitment purposes, but have you (as I did) been uncertain which is the correct name for it? Having just spent a month combing through Sir Henry Ellis's A General Introduction to Domesday Book, I have learned that Domesday is preferable, the word being derived from the Latin Domus Dei (House of God) because the records were kept in a place of that name in the Church of Winchester or Westminster. Bear in mind that it does not pertain to the end of the world (Doomsday). These volumes are among many that will be lent to subscribers by Sir Rodney Hartwell who, with his wife, publishes the gilt-edged quarterlies The Colonial Genealogist and Forebears, among others, at 945 2nd St, Hermosa Beach, CA 90254.

Another learned personage who will share books from her 250-book library is Dorothy Ford Wulfeck, editor of the genealogy column in The Virginia Gazette. She rents books (mainly VA, KY, and MO) for a deposit of the price of the book, of which you receive 80% back (less postage and insurance for mailing to you) when they are returned in good condition after 30 days. Send 48¢ in stamps for her list of books and their prices to Mrs. Wulfeck, 51 Park Ave, Naugatuck, CT 06770.
