IN MEMORIAM
JOE B. GOLDEN

This issue of AGS Quarterly is dedicated to Joe B. Golden, a charter member of Austin Genealogical Society. Although circumstances prevented his attendance at meetings, he maintained his membership, and was supportive of his wife's genealogical activities, including two time-consuming terms as our president.

 Asked for a sketch of her husband's life, "Gray" submitted only the following modest summary, but all who knew him can testify that he was a truly fine man.

Joe B. Golden, long a member of Austin Genealogical Society, died Oct. 17, 1979 of a heart attack. He had been retired for five years from the Texas Education Agency, where he was Director of the Textbook Division. Before moving to Austin in 1953 he had been the Superintendent of Vernon and Bonham schools. He served as County Superintendent of Wichita for 12 years. During his years in Wichita County he designed and equipped the first Bookmobile for Texas. It was a traveling library with its own power plant and movie projector.

Mr. Golden was an ardent supporter of the Parent-Teacher Association, serving as District President of District VII. He was a deacon in the First Baptist Church, a member of Hella Shrine Temple, and on the Area Council for Boy Scouts and Campfire Girls, Inc.

Mr. Golden served as president of the National Textbook Association for two terms, and was chairman of the important National Specifications Committee for Textbooks for ten years.

Surviving Mr. Golden are his wife, Jessie Gray Golden, genealogy librarian and teacher; a son Joe B. Golden Jr., an attorney at Jasper, Texas; a daughter Mrs. Lawrence Warburton of Alice, and seven grandchildren.
BOOK REVIEW

The Great Wagon Road is not a new book, but it is one of my favorites, and the fact that a copy has just been given to the Genealogy Section of Texas State Library seems to justify reviewing it at this late date. If the powers that be refuse to recognize that the Great Wagon Road pertains as much to genealogy as to geography and history, you may have to go to the third floor to find the book, but it will be worth your while, I assure you.

For, next to names and dates, the migration of one's ancestors is perhaps the most important objective of a genealogist's research. And this book covers two of the major routes, the Great Philadelphia Wagon Road (from that city to Augusta, on Savannah River), and the Wilderness Road (Virginia to Tennessee and Kentucky), and traces them on a map.

First Mr. Rouse locates Indian tribes and the trails (notably the Great Warriors' Path) they made. Next, he treats of the white man's needs for getting to certain parts of the colonies and beyond, then how the necessary roads were made for explorers, trappers, traders, and finally settlers.

A wealth of information is presented in a satisfying balance of factual detail and amusing anecdote, weighted with contemporary quotations. You can learn just what your ancestors ate, wore, planted, sang, paid, read, suffered; how they worked, played, fought, built, and earned their living as they made their way along these migration paths.

And their experience of the migration trail was not a one-time, seen-through-the-car-window kind of thing. Many families spent a lifetime along the route, planting a crop here; moving on in hopes of better land there; squatting, renting, buying and selling farms every few years; burying their infants and their old folk where they fell.

Many of the strange phrases seen in old books, many now-forgotten customs therein tantalizingly referred to are explained in this fascinating revelation of life on the Great Wagon Road. Perhaps the best way to whet your appetite is to list some of the chapter headings:

- Germans in Pennsylvania, Enter the Scotch-Irish, A Moravian Journey to Carolina, Along the Way South, Presbyterians in a New Land, Mapping the Great Mountains, The Threat from the French, Life in the Appalachians, The Wagon Road Turns West, Apostle of the Frontier, Andrew Jackson of the Waxhaws, The Exodus of the Quakers, Conestoga's Gift [the wagon], Hospitality, North and South [inns and taverns], The Spirit of Luther, In the Cabins along the Road, Tuckahoe [Early settlers on the coast of South Carolina had eaten a plant root so named] versus Cohoe [Uplanders who employed the Scottish locution "quoth he"], Stagecoaches and Turnpikes, The Cherokees Go West,... A Road Is Reunited.

A journey down The Great Wagon Road is one you will not forget!

MUG BOOKS IN TEXAS STATE ARCHIVES

A "mug book" is a collection of biographical sketches, usually including portraits of some of the men--hence the nickname; "mug" has been a slang word for face since the days of Charles Dickens.

The first compilers of such books selected the men they considered most prominent in the community; later (fortunately for us) anyone who wished could get his family history included for a price, perhaps only pre-publication purchase of the book. After that, some men scorned the suggestion that they be the subject of a sketch, so there are various reasons why certain worthy men cannot be found in a mug book.

Although some of these books are written in the florid rhetoric of the day (each "subject" is the most prominent in his area!), they are invaluable to ancestor seekers for the information they furnish about a man's occupation, former residences, military experience, religious and fraternal affiliations, etc. Sometimes all the children of three or four generations are listed, plus something about the antecedents of the subject's wife.

A search of the card files designated 2 and 3 in the Texas State Archives revealed the titles of many mug books under BOOKS - Texas - Biography. A few have been omitted herein because they covered such a recent period only, or pertained to a certain few of the heroes of Texas whose biographies are so abundant: Austin, Houston, et al.

Regrettably, many of these biographical collections have no index per se, but some have been indexed onto cards in files 4, 5, and 6. The first drawer of file 4 lists "Books Referred to in Biographical Index"; newer books usually have indexes.

The first step in looking for a Texan in the State Archives would be to consult The Handbook of Texas, found on the attendant's desk. (Volume III sketches some who died after 1952.) Second, check the biographical index of books referred to above, plus drawers labeled "Manuscript Holdings, A.J. Houston Collection, Ranger Rolls, Confederate Index," etc.

There are a few mug books at Barker Texas History Center which are not in the State Archives, but there is a veritable multitude of them available just across the lobby from where we genealogical researchers usually work. The ones that offer the most promise for us have been arbitrarily classified below for convenience, but some could well be in several categories.

TEXAS VOLUNTEER UNITS IN THE MEXICAN WAR 1846-1848

Part 8

This continuing feature is a compilation of data found in the National Archives Microfilm Publications Microcopy No. 278. For an explanation, see pp. 113-114 of AGS Quarterly XIX:4.

Thinking that readers would be interested in knowing how many of these soldiers remained in Texas after the war, we have looked them up on the 1850 census. First we examine the Accelerated Index to the 1850 Census of Texas for a name that closely resembles that of a soldier. When there are several, we look on the microfilm at one in the county where he enlisted, if we have his age to check against. If the microfilm is illegible, we consult Mrs. V. K. Carpenter's printed 1850 census of Texas.

Therefore, in the list which follows, an asterisk precedes each name which bears a reasonable resemblance to one that appears in the 1850 census. With the more common names there is, of course, less assurance of identity. REMEMBER: These are just possibilities—we do not guarantee that the man on the census was the soldier. But by showing all the details given in the census, we hope to enable the readers to locate their ancestors. Many may be found in the Handbook of Texas, especially Volume III, the new supplement.

Sarakay Jordan, Director of the Genealogy Section of Texas State Library, has thoughtfully provided a schedule of holidays that will be observed by that section during the current fiscal year. If patrons will consult this schedule they will avoid the disappointment of finding the library closed, as well as the expense of a futile trip to Austin.

Let us all be as cooperative as Mrs. Jordan and remember to register each time we visit the library, for keeping it open on Saturdays and its book budget are largely contingent upon the number of users of these fine facilities.

BUSICK COOK CROCKETT DINGLE GIBBINS HARDISTY HITT HURST LANDRUM PAYNE SALLEE SHANNON SMITH TRAVIS VENABLE(S) WARD WILLIAMS WOODGET

Would like to correspond with all of the descendants of Rev. Edward Carter DINGLE b ca 1760/65 England (what county?), d ca 1834/35 Kentucky (possibly Scott Co.). Known wives are Nancy CROCKETT b ca 1765-75 Virginia, daughter of Winder & Anise CROCKETT; Virginia SALLEE. Believe that Rev. DINGLE had a wife before these two; was this wife the daughter of John & Mary GIBBINS? John GIBBINS left a will in Sussex Co., Del., mentioning a son-in-law Edward Carty DINGLE.

Rev. DINGLE appears in Scott Co., Ky. in 1795. His will was probated there in July court 1835.

The following children and one grandson are mentioned in the above will.

Edward F. DINGLE, probably born in 1790's; no further data on him.
Richard C. DINGLE b 1793/4 Delaware. 1/w Jemima WILLIAMS (Scott Co., Ky.). This family is on the 1840 Marion County census. In 1850 Marion Co., Richard has 2/w Elizabeth HITT; Gone by 1860; Where?

Winder CROCKETT DINGLE b 24 Jan 1800, Georgetown, Scott Co., Ky. d 5 Aug 1888, Marion Co., No., m Mary Ann SHANNON before Feb 1834 in Ky. Mary Ann was born Ky 24 Sept 1817 to Jacob & Permelia (Amelia, Nilly HURTST) SHANNON. Mary Ann died in Louisville Ky. 5 Jul 1889, and is buried beside her husband in Bethel Cemetery, Palmyra, No.

Samuel DINGLE b ca 1815 Ky., murdered Mar 1841, Mexico, Audrain Co., No. m Nancy WOODGET 1830 in Fayette Co., Ky. What became of Nancy? Their children were living with their grandmother, Frances DINGLE and an uncle, John G. DINGLE, in 1850 Audrain Co., No.

Carter B. DINGLE b ca 1814 Ky., d early 1860's, m Nancy WARD 30 May 1849, Audrain Co., No.

William S. DINGLE b ca 1817, no further data on him.

John G. DINGLE b ca 1820 Ky., married the widow of his brother, Carter B. DINGLE (when & where?). They raised a family and are on the 1870 Audrain Co., No., census, where were they in 1880? Some of their children were in Randolph Co., No., in 1900.

Elizabeth DINGLE b 1790's in Maryland (what Co.?) d Scott Co., Ky., in 1860's. She married John COOK and had son Dudley COOK. (Female) DINGLE married WILLIAMS and had son Ginsey WILLIAMS.

This grandson shared equally with his aunts and uncles in his grandfather DINGLE's will.

Charlotte DINGLE m BUSHICK. Where did they settle?
Julia DINGLE m PAYNE. Where did they settle?
Nancy DINGLE m (Reuben?) LANDRUM; was she the Nancy LANDRUM who was a widow on the 1850 Trigg Co., Ky., census? Did she later marry TRAVIS in Trigg Co.?

Folly DINGLE m (McKenzie?) HARDISTY. Was she a widow on the 1860 Audrain Co., census? Where did she go?
Margaret DINGLE m SMITH. Was her husband a minister and did they settle in No.?

Rev. Edward Carter DINGLE was ordained a Baptist minister in the 1780's in Sussex Co., Del. About this same time his father, Rev. Edward DINGLE was a minister for the Church of England somewhere in Maryland (what Co.?). There were several Edward DINGLE's who were ministers in Maryland about the same time.

Was William DINGLE of Nicholas Co., Ky. in 1810, a brother to Rev. Edward C. DINGLE? Would like to correspond with descendants of this William DINGLE also. Mrs. W.C. Houston, Box 548, Smithville, Tx. 78957.

EDITOR'S PAGE

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the death of Harold Leslie Lemburg. Austin Genealogical Society will sadly miss him, not merely because he was such a fine treasurer but because he was such a supportive member and so friendly to everyone. We extend our sympathy to his widow, Mary Katherine, and other members of the family. We hope to publish an obituary in our next issue.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Since there is no meeting in December, and therefore no Newsletter to be mailed, it was decided to issue our fourth quarterly of the year in time to be mailed with the November Newsletter.

That saves postage and lessens the burden on our faithful mailing committee, Barbara and Gerry Goudreau. They have carried this load a long time; won't some of our sturdier members come forward and help them? You know the expression "You can work a willing horse to death" -- what would we do if these two dependable members simply quit?

THE CASE OF THE MISSING POSTCARD; or, WHERE DID I FILE IT?

I sent a return postcard to a cousin named Wilkinson asking how far it was from her Lindsay ancestral home to Pulaski and how far to Mount Moriah churchyard, where Joseph Brown was buried. When the answer came back, I was deep into the ministerial career of Joseph Brown, so I dropped the postcard into my files.

Then when I got ready to put the information into my manuscript, I had forgotten what seemed the logical place to file it, so I searched through folders labeled Births, Deaths & Burials; Joseph Brown, Religious; Lindsay Family; and Wilkinson Correspondence, as well as all the books I had recently dipped into, in case I had used it as a bookmark.

And you know where I found that postcard? I had dropped it into the McGillivray folder, next to Lindsay. There is no logic in human error!

Whether you think of it as MEMBERSHIP DUES or SUBSCRIPTION to AGS Quarterly, it's payable as of January First. See inside front cover for details.
