VISITORS WELCOME
EARLY CHURCH FATHERS--AND MOTHERS
Clergy and Members of Pioneer Texas Churches

This is the final installment of names culled from Historic Churches of Texas: The Land and the People by Frank A. Driskill and Noel Grisham, which was reviewed in AGS Quarterly for September 1981. [See also September and November 1981 titles, the years they were members, and names of specific churches in most cases. Many interesting details are to be found in this book, but it is the fact that a number of women are mentioned in an era when women were almost anonymous that inspired us to list for our readers the founders and early members of these Texas churches.

In Historic Churches ..., many sketches are brought down to the present, but for our purposes, the cut-off date is about 1925. A few sketches describe the church building(s) in detail but name very few members. The number of women named in this installment is disappointing, but their presence is shown by "Mr. and Mrs."

Presbyterian, Episcopal, Baptist, Roman Catholic, Methodist, and Church of Christ congregations have already been named.

TEXAS VOLUNTEER UNITS IN THE MEXICAN WAR 1846-48
Part 15

This unit of the U.S. Army enlisted for six months but none of the men served that long in it. Only one company (Hill's) was assigned a letter (A) and reached Monterrey, Mexico. Capt. Benjamin F. Hill had recruited his men at Bastrop and San Antonio, according to Henry W. Barton's Texas Volunteers in the Mexican War, page 107.

Another source used to supplement the microfilmed Compiled Service Records (National Archives Microcopy No. 278) is Harry McCorry Henderson's Texas Fights, specifically "Texas Troops in the War with Mexico."

On the following pages we continue our tabulation of service records. An asterisk precedes a soldier's name if, on the 1850 Census of Texas, a name identical or similar to his has been found. Census data follows the service record table.

Long-time AGS member Evelyn (Farris) Wolf (Mrs. Dan Wolf of McDade) has kindly sent us cemetery listings that she compiled in 1980 and 1978. She even went back in order to record accurate directions to the cemeteries, and we are deeply grateful.

GAZLEY CREEK CEMETERY, in later years known as THOMPSON HILL CEMETERY, is near Smithville. Go south on Texas Highway 95 one mile to Cistern; turn right onto FM 535 toward Rosanky; drive ½ mile. The cemetery is located on a tall hill on the right, away from the road, on private land owned by Mrs. Leonard Zimmerhanzel and joined by property of Ivyn Webb.

In 1897, Joseph D. Sayers deeded to the Smithville Cemetery Association ten acres out of the T.J. Gazley survey (Bastrop County deed records, Volume 26, page 384).

COLORADO CHAPEL CEMETERY and CHURCH
(Methodist and Community Cemetery near Utley)

To reach this cemetery (on Old Webberville Road) from Bastrop, take Texas Highway 71 west for 2.7 miles; turn right onto FM 969 (toward Utley); go 7.4 miles, then turn left onto old paved road behind Roberts 969 Quick Pack Station. The cemetery is a short distance behind the station.

Burials are in three sections: White, Colored, and Latin. Only the first are copied here. In 1874 John W. Brown donated five acres (J. Rogers survey) for use as cemetery and church; the latter was disbanded about 1930. (Bastrop Co deeds, Vol. U p. 85)

Book Review

THE THOMAS WESLEY ANDERSON FAMILY FROM ALABAMA TO TEXAS by June Jones Igo. Privately published, Austin TX, 1982. 8½ x 11", v + 141 pages. Profusely illustrated; maps; full-name Index. Hard cover, $21.50; soft-bound, $16.50 (while they last). Order from Mrs. L.M. Igo, 8906 Covey Court, Austin TX 78758.

This handsomely bound book covers descendants of Wesley A. Anderson, born 1799 in South Carolina and died 1855 in Randolph County Alabama. In Baldwin County, Georgia he married Frances Harris. They also lived in Mississippi.

The line is traced (down through the compiler's grandchildren) through John Priar Anderson and wife, Martha Malysa Fincher. The format for generations is I, a, l, a, (l), successively indented, giving a clear picture. Besides factual descriptions, interesting anecdotes are included whenever the compiler was able to learn of them. There is an amazing number of portraits and group pictures in the book, plus reproductions of pertinent documents.

Included are an interesting Preface, adequate Table of Contents, and excellent Index. Most frequently cited surnames: Ashcraft, Bradley, Carter, Clark, Conway, Ellis, Fincher, Garner, Hamrick, Jones, Mears, Ray, Sikes, Whatley.

The typing is excellent, the spacing and margins are generous, and most of the photographs reproduced excellently.

AGS is proud of its member who compiled this book, destined to be treasured by family members, and congratulates Mrs. Igo on her fine accomplishment.

AGS Quarterly Vol. XXIV No. 1 Austin TX
DESCEND WE ALL FROM CHARLEMAGNE?

Probably the only AGS member who is now actively pursuing research on Alsatian ancestors, Emma Gene (Seale) Gentry (Mrs. H.R.) is a member of Le Cercle Genealogique d'Alsace. In a recent issue of its Bulletin, Monsieur Robert Lutz discussed an intriguing theory, a translation of which (made by a Parisian) was furnished to Mrs. Gentry. She and your editor have attempted to edit it into more idiomatic English (see below).

We would welcome comments from our readers whose lines trace back to Emperor Charlemagne (742-814), great King of the Franks.

ARE WE ALL DESCENDANTS OF CHARLEMAGNE?

M. Robert Lutz, president,
Cercle Genealogique d'Alsace

A controversy has been established in divers genealogical publications in recent times. Certain researchers are assuring us in effect that every Frenchman of our era must have Charlemagne among his ancestors, whether or not he can prove it. Others contest this opinion.

Among the first, M. Bertin bases his argument 1) upon the number of ancestors that one can, theoretically, have from the era of Charlemagne, which number far surpasses the population Europe then had; and 2) upon the geographical dispersion of all families subsequent to alliances and particularly of the known descendants of Charlemagne.

It is certain that many slightly elaborated ancestor charts, even from the Commonalty, include this emperor, as is the case for several of our Cercle. Nevertheless, I do fully share the objections challenging this theory published in "Nos Ancetres et Nous" ["Our Ancestors and Us"], Bulletin of the genealogical societies of Bourgogne [Burgundy], M. Rossignol (bulletin #9) and Castin (#11).

In effect, M. Bertin does not take into account the social stratification that produces an effect of concentration totally different from a random diffusion. Thus, according to Forst de Battaglia's Treatise on Genealogy, 1949, p. 60, the Count of Paris descends 86 times from King Henry IV, who himself descends 10,000 or more times from Saint Louis [Louis IX (1215-1270) of France]--thus more than a million times from Charlemagne.

A middle-class family of Zurich, the Rubel-Blass (whose ancestry has been published), goes back to him by 32,000 ways. Even if not all the lines of descendants are beyond question, there remain many which are reliable. I myself have gone back to him (Charlemagne) in the ascending line of each of the great-grandparents of our children, with sometimes a rather limited confidence in the reliability of certain references.

This does not exclude the likelihood or the probability of that ascendency being very inequally shared out among the population of Europe, in spite of the frequent cases of bastardy which often happened within the same social class. The mere fact of this strong interweaving, pointed out in a former paragraph, considerably reduces the probabilities worked out for chance distribution.

It would be interesting if all our members who have been able to trace their ancestors back to Charlemagne would report it to M. Wolff [M. Christian Wolff, editor of the "Bulletin" of Cercle Genealogique d'Alsace, Archives du Bas-Rhin, 5 rue Fischart, 67000 Strasbourg, France]. That will give an indication, without declaring a statistical probability, owing to its geographical situation, to include in its population an impressive proportion of the progeny of this great personage.

AGS PROGRAMS SLATED

Mary Katherine Lemburg, Program Chairman, has announced the program topics and speakers scheduled for the next four AGS meetings, all on Tuesday nights except MAY. The auditorium has been pre-empted for that fourth Tuesday so our meeting will be held on Wednesday the 25th at 7 p.m. (Board meeting at 6:30).

22nd March - "Genealogical Resources at Perry-Castaneda Library" - Eric Kunze
26th April - "The Gestation and Birth of a Book" - Helen H. Rugeley; technical consultant, Leo Boatright from Ginny's
25th May (Wednesday) - "Genealogy and the Computer" - Gerard Goudreau
28th June - "Genealogical Research in Vital Statistics" - State Registrar W.D. Carroll
On 31 Mch 1841 your editor's great-great-grandfather, Dr. David Franklin Brown, wrote from Bastrop TX to his brother who was visiting their father at Cave Spring in Maury Co, TN. The addressee, Joseph Porter Brown (1808-44), in 1839 had been co-owner (with Edward Burleson) of part of the land upon which the City of Austin was laid out (Bill Moore, Bastrop County 1691-1900, rev. ed., pp. 269-71, referring to Vol. A, Police Court Record, Bastrop Co, pp. 51-53).

J. Porter Brown had married Jane Stewart Frazier on 15 Mch 1832 in Tennessee and moved to Texas in the spring of 1838. Their first child was named Jane Gillespie (for his paternal grandmother); Joseph Frazier was born 3 Oct 1841 (married Dorothy A. Wadsworth), and Sarah Frances in 1844 (married Dr. M.C. Brockenbrough). Joseph Porter Brown died of yellow fever 8 Oct 1844 at Galveston; in 1858 his widow married W. (?) Tyson.

The following letter gives a glimpse of conditions in Texas as perceived by an average citizen not especially active in public affairs:

Dear Joseph

I have deferred writing to you for some time thinking matters would be so settled here that you would know what to depend upon, but our matters seem to be still an uncertainty. During the session of Congress we had daily news [rumors] of the Mexican invasion as I informed you in my last letter. That matter all blew over & we had a prospect of peace through the mediation of England. Last week Dr. Booker (n 1) came on from Mexico who stated that Gen. Arista (n 2) had 2000 troops 18 pieces of artillery 2000 more in readiness to join him & 5000 more coming in from the interior making 9000 troops all going after the Comanches (n 3). A wife of one of the officers informed him the object was to go up the rio grand after the indians & come down the Colorado & betray western Texas. It may all be falce as the thousand & one tales have been heretofore. The government has sent out spies to ascertain the truth of the report. Our vessell that was sent to Mexico with the English treaty has not been heard from, it may have been forceably detained as Booker states he was ordered to go further back into the interior. Capts Lewis (n 4) & Bugg/Buz?/Buss? will go up the Colorado in a few days with 2 companies of men & some of the Lapans (n 5). General Lamar (n 6) has got back to Austin with restored health He & Burnett (n 7) has fallen out & Lamar has declared himself in favour of Houston for the Presadency Old Sam (n 8) will beat Rusk (n 9) & Burnett all hollow I wrote you before that the county boundary bill (n 10) had passed but I was mistaken for it still lies on the table as a part of the unfinished business in the Senate so that our Perdenales (n 11) lands are not yet safe You could get out a pattent for your land on the Blanco (n 12) now as they are issuing patents Davis (n 13) is going to get out a patent for his league above Austin.
Mr Ogden. (n 14) says that you made a mistake in the calls of the deed you took of Davis—that it don't take [i.e., describe] the land that it was intended to take. I directed him to have it altered when Davis went up there.

Yours & Billingsley['s] (n 15) cases will come on next District Court in May I think. The houses were moved off the lots about the time you left here. I renewed your notes for the town lots they will fall due in 12 months. The government dues on land is bound to be paid in 12 months also. Mr Willcox (n 16) has nearly all the effects you left in his charge. He is living on 12 acre lot below town. The colt was sold to satisfy the execution had against Miller (n 17) & you & I bought it in for $16 2/3 good money. I shall be able to arrange the most of your debts by the time you get back. Sims (n 18) is anxious to sell out his place here. He asks 4 dollars per acre & pay for his improvements.

I think I shall sell too this summer. I expect to go out to the St Marks soon to make my selection there. Doct. Fentress (n 19) wants to go out to his place there soon—his wife is getting quite large [pregnant?] & healthy. There has been no sickness here since you left. I wrote you some time since [ago] that I wished you to pay Bills & McNeal (n 20) 2 or 3 hundred dollars for me & that I would do as much or more for you here. [to save trouble of sending money to Tennessee] I have gotten the barrel of sugar you sent me but I have not heard of the box of goods you sent us & Mary (n 21).

It has been cold & wet this spring. I have all my corn planted but have a bad stand on half of it. I have saved you [tear in paper] beautiful barrows & spaid sows & have saved you a little sow of my best breed. I have all my corn on hand yet & expect to have it all to feed to my hogs as there is no demand for it. The people are all planting cotton that can procure seed. I should have sent you some papers but my paper was stoped & I have not renewed it again.

Jane (n 22) sends her love to Jane (n 23) & Gillespie (n 24—seems to have remained in Texas with the D.F. Browns) says Jane [her mother] must be certain to write & not to forget to come back again as she is very anxious to see her. I will write again soon.

Resp yours
D. F. Brown

NOTES (most data from Handbook of Texas)

1. Dr. Shields Booker, a surgeon in the Texas Army at San Jacinto and subsequently, was in San Antonio suing the city on 11 Sep 1842 when Adrian Woll captured all present for court and took them to Perote Prison in Mexico, where Booker died.
2. Mariano Arista was General of the Mexican Army of the North.
3. At this time, "Comanche Country" stretched from central Kansas southward to Aystin TX and from Oklahoma City westward to Raton Pass in New Mexico.
4. Mark B. Lewis had come to Texas to fight in its Revolution; held several public offices; in 1842 raised a company to pursue General Adrian Woll back to Mexico. Bugg not identified.
5. Lipan-Apache Indians.
6. Mirabeau B. Lamar had been elected president almost unanimously in 1838, but his popularity was now at a low ebb.
7. David G. Burnet was then vice-president of Texas.
8. Sam Houston--He did win the presidency again.
9. Thomas J. Rusk had resigned his office as chief justice of the Texas Supreme Court in June 1840.
10. Travis County had been taken from Bastrop in 1840. Of the counties that now surround Travis, Caldwell, Hays and Williamson were created in 1848; Burnet in 1852; and Blanco (out of Gillespie and Comal & others named above) in 1858.
13. Allen J. Davis got 640 acres in 1837; George W. Davis, administrator of James P. Davis dec'd, got a third of a league in 1834 (Bill Moore's Bastrop County, pp. 263 & 257) -- two of the Davises that J. Porter Brown may have bought land from in Bastrop Co. Or, (T.L. Miller's Bounty and Donation Land Grants of Texas) perhaps a John Davis who had 1280 acres in Travis Co patented to him on 23 Nov 1841, since letter says "above Austin."
14. Probably James M. Ogden, an Austin attorney in 1839; district attorney for 3rd Judicial District in January 1842.
15. Jesse Billingsley of Tennessee resided in Bastrop Co 1834-1880. His picture is in one of our family albums.
16. General Land Office File Bastrop Bounty 136 shows that 1280 acres in Travis Co were patented to a Charles Wilcox.
17. Samuel B. Miller was Bastrop County Clerk 3 Apr 1839.
18. Bartlett Sims, surveyor, resided in Bastrop Co ca 1832-43; had moved to Williamson Co by 1850.
19. This must have been Dr. David and Matilda Caroline (Wendell) Fentress who married in 1833. The letter-writer's daughter Clara Frances Brown married Dr. David Wendell Fentress in 1858.
20. Relatives of his wife back in Tennessee, probably bankers or merchants--could be Jane's brother-in-law Maj. John Houston Bills, or Isaac N. Bills, and one of her brothers Ezekiel Polk, Albert Thomas, Samuel L. or William Wallace McNeal.
21. Unable to identify Mary.
22. The writer's wife, née Jane Frances McNeal.
23. Jane (Frazier) Brown, wife of the addressee.
24. Gillespie was a daughter of J. Porter Brown, and later made an extended visit in the D.F. Brown household. On the other hand, there may have been words omitted by the writer, such as "My wife Jane" after Gillespie, making it a message from Mrs. D.F. Brown to Mrs. J. Porter Brown.

"VENTURE NOT OUT INTO DANGEROUS PLACES"

A tidy summary of the visit (p. 19) of J. Porter Brown to his father, Col. Joseph Brown (a Cumberland Presbyterian minister), can be found in the latter's letter to another son, Dr. David Franklin Brown at Bastrop:

Cave Spring Tenn Decbr 20th 1841

Dear Son

I have one time more taken my pen to write to you, When yr Brother Joseph was hear and writing frequently you could still hear about me and I could hear about you, but that opportunity is over he started the first day of this month for Texas Ould Captain Forney (n 1) went from hear with him and rode his fine Stallion that I gave him he started with a fine team of horses and a Strong New Waggon. I had it made low for a plantation Waggon and two likely young Negros I conveyed them to his (n 2) Children they are a Son and Daughter of Ould Charity I purchased some land for him, a four hundred and Eight Acre tract that lies a bout four miles a bove Austin. I think it is a part of a Tract in the name of Davis possibly it is a part that he got for locating the original tract I also purchased a nother part of a leage that I believe he sold the other part to your brother John T. Brown (n 3) there is nineteen hundred and Eighty or ninety acres in that Tract and I wish you to act as my agent as I cannot Expect to stay much longer in this World [He died 27 years later at t the age of 96:] & I wish an Equal Division of what earthly goods I may Die possessed of a mong my Children and as Joseph was hear & ap peared to wish to sell a part of his land to enable him to git a start again in the World I bought the a bove thinking it would in Crease in Value and possibly be of more Value to my hairs than what it has now cost and be the means of helping your Brother to make a living. I shall inclose a two Dollar note which will probablly pay the Ex pense of giting the Titel of the land secured for a coupel of years(?) and if I should Continue to Keep as stout as I am at preasent I may possibly visit that Country in a Coupel of years, if you cannot come [here] I have paid your Brother for all the land that I purchased from him and it has made me very bare of funds for any other purpose but if I can make Collections I will endeavor to pay Major Bills (n 4) two or three hundred Dollars for you but I cannot Do it without I am luckey'r than I have been lately Making Collections.

My health is very good and all our friends and familys are in their common [usual] health I was at Mr Lanes (n 5) a few days past him self and company all arived at home on the 12th Instant in good health all perfectly satisfysd to stay in Tennessee I was at Mrs Lindsays (n 6) two or three days past they were all, well

I now write to you to beg you not to Venture out into Dangerous plases neither your self nor family for your family on boath sides have been fine Indian Bate, (n 7) but a bove every thing try to git to the good World for this Clay Tabernacle will soon Disolve at most but if we have a house not made with hands to go to it will be well and the Blessed Savior has dyed to make it sure.

Your Brother Joseph only had a boute Ninety Dollars in Money when he left hear and aboute two hundred & sixty Dollars worth of homespun and tacks and Blankets for travelling Exspenses but if he gits there with his horse [he will do all right, for] he is a fine folegitter [foal getter] and of the Best Blood of this country on both sides and his Coalts are fine used (?) horses and great Walkers and easy spirited and hardey, please to let him have your aid and indeaver to git him ingaged (?) on a farm he is industrious and if his mind can be put to raising a supply [enough food to supply his family] at home he will do well. I desire very much to see you and your family and if Jane (n 8) has not joined any other branch of the Church of Christ I would be glad that she would not for if she will live fruitfull and watchfull she can as well be a Cumberland Presbyteran as any and get to the good World, and with out she will attend to those dutys she will not get there no matter who or what branch of the Church it will avail nothing

Say to Mary Armour (n 9) and all the Children Grandfather trys to pray for them every day and wants them all to be good and learn to read the Bibel and pray and God will love them and be their friend and when they die they will be away from all the bad peopel forever where their poor father will not have to git up at night to gow and see the sick peopel

My Dear Children, live much on your knees for praying breath is not shouting pain I am your affectionate father &c

JoS Brown

NOTES

1. Came to Texas and set up a blacksmith shop.
2. Joseph's children--probably a safeguard against creditors. Joseph Porter Brown seemed to attract hard luck, and his older brothers often came to his rescue.
3. John Thomas Brown then lived in Mississippi. His widow, Nancy (White) Brown, and 3 children moved to Hays Co, TX ca 1850.
4. See Note 20 supra.
5. Milton Miles Lane married the colonel's daughter Esther Elizabeth King Brown. They later moved to Delta Co, TX, where I lost them after the Civil War--any help appreciated.
6. Daughter Amelia Ann Brown m. J.J.P. Lindsay. Colonel Brown lived his last years in her home in Giles Co, TN.
7. Indian bait: On the maternal side, Dr. Brown's uncle, Joshua Thomas, was the only casualty of the punitive Nickajack expedition against Indians; on the paternal side, Colonel Brown and others had been held captive by the Cherokees and Creeks who killed Dr. Brown's grandfather and Brown uncles.
9. Oldest daughter of D.F. and Jane Brown; later married Dr. James Crawford Rogan and lived at San Saba TX.

Musings on the Misuse of Words

I was pleased recently to receive a sample copy of Genealogical Journal, an excellent quarterly published by Utah Genealogical Association. Fully aware that it was a promotional ploy designed to lure me into subscribing again (which I would do if I had not exhausted shelf room and subscription budget), I still feel rather guilty of looking a gift horse in the mouth as I register the following protest.

One of the book reviewers not only is guilty of misplaced optimism ("one will hopefully check the published guides") but also is (apparently) unaware of the difference between "foreword" and "forward." When the introduction to a book is entitled Forward, inevitably I picture Teddy Roosevelt, sword aloft, galloping up San Juan Hill shouting "Charge!" or "Forward!"

Must we enter the book at breakneck speed?

I am also distressed at the present-day corruption of the meaning of the words "lady" and "gentleman." I heartily agree that a man does not have to be descended from the First Families of Virginia to be a gentleman, nor does a woman need to wear white gloves to the laundromat to qualify as a lady. He may perfectly well be one of Nature's Noblemen and not know which fork to use--it's not a matter of etiquette. But my contention is that there is a limit, even if rigid standards of the past do not apply now.

I'm no Lady Vere de Vere, but I nearly swooned when I heard a Kentucky judge (on TV) refer to a thrice-convicted black man as "this gentleman."

Democracy is fine--I'm all for it--but if there are no recognized degrees of worth, we might as well all be robots. If every contestant is referred to as a champion, the word loses its meaning. A member of the chorus line is not deprived of her inalienable rights if the program fails to list her as a prima donna.

Facts are facts. For centuries, all classes of society have accepted the fact that a person must meet certain standards of behaviour (or be heir to a certain niche in a recognized culture) in order to be accorded the title "gentleman" or "lady." A pitiable dope-crazed drug peddler in a ghetto is not a lady or a gentleman any more than she/he is a movie star or a priest. No matter how sorry we feel for the deprived person and how much we would like to help him, it is as ridiculous as it is futile to try to elevate him in the eyes of the world by sticking a false label on him.

And that's not snobbishness or a smug feeling of superiority--I'm a retired factory-worker myself. It's just rational: Calling a man a horse would not enable him to win the Kentucky Derby, or to live on hay, or emit a credible neigh. I doubt that it would even raise his self-esteem.

Genealogists are sometimes accused of blurring the facts; let's refute that charge by concentrating on accuracy.

ANCESTORS, that is: Now is the time to prepare for the Ancestor Listing Issue, our June Quarterly. Deadline for receipt of material is the 10th of May at the home of the Editor: 2202 WEST TENTH STREET, AUSTIN TX 78703 (NOT the postoffice box).

Each paid-up member is entitled to TWO facing pages (that is, FOUR pages total for a $10 membership) of camera-ready copy. This may be Ahnenafel (numbered ancestor table), lineage charts, family group sheets, narratives, or a combination—just so it is legible, neat, and dark enough to photograph. See examples in past June issues at the State Library.

Page size is 8½ x 11, leaving space at bottom for page numbers and at least ¾ of an inch margin for hole punching and stapling. Left-hand pages need extra space on the right and vice versa.

Be sure your name and address are legible so people can make contact with you. YOU are responsible for what you submit, so be careful not to break copyright laws!

SURPLUS QUARTERLIES

For a limited time, we still have some surplus quarterlies, as well as some that can be sold at the regular price. But since the last sale at an AGS meeting was like shearing hogs ("Great cry but little wool"), we cannot ask Dr. Carter to lug those heavy boxes up to the auditorium again.

If you would like to purchase some back issues, call the editor at 477-7313 so we can arrange a date when you can come and select what you want.

I dug out a number of issues in response to a letter from one of our members but she moved immediately and I have been unable to make contact with her since. N.G. please call me!
SCOOP! Advance Notice of AGS Events

Christina Allday-Bondy, Workshop Chairman, is negotiating with the Hyatt Regency Hotel on Barton Springs Road to hold the annual AGS Workshop there on Saturday the 20th of August 1983. That site won enthusiastic approval last year, with many favorable comments about the food, so Tina is investigating the feasibility of including lunch in the price of registration this year.

An eminent speaker on North Carolina research is being considered, as well as a knowledgeable Texan. Details will be released later, as they are confirmed.

Another treat is being planned for AGS members and friends in the form of a bus trip to explore the new genealogical facilities of Dallas Public Library. Jim Carter (Dr. James B.) is looking into the possibilities, options, and costs of an overnight excursion this summer. He would welcome your input--let him know your feelings about this. Definite details will be announced at meetings.

THE LIVESAY HISTORICAL SOCIETY is seeking descendants of the Livesay-Livesey-Lifsey-Livescy family for the purpose of exchanging genealogical information. Send long SASE for FREE issue of "The Livesay Bulletin" to Mrs. Virginia Smith, Bulletin Editor, 104 Linden Avenue, Mercersburg, PA 17236

SAYING IT BETTER

[Have you ever winced at the sanguinary phrase "putting flesh on the bones of our ancestors"? Recently Dr. Jim Carter planted an idea for a better way to express that thought.]

"From a thread of information here and a thread there we can weave a garment to clothe the skeleton of statistics that pertain to our ancestors."

ADOPTEES and STEP-CHILDREN are twigs grafted onto the family tree for the improvement thereof.
POOR PEOPLE HAVE ANCESTORS, TOO!

Over the past few decades, genealogical societies have become more democratic, mercifully rising above the snobbish "blue-bloods only" attitude of the past. Most of us have some lines of "poor but honest" farming folk who never held public office, led a battalion, or embezzled a fortune. We need all the help we can get to dig up records of such men, so we are eager to learn from experts.

We continue to search for these obscure people, at all costs, for they have contributed to our heritage just as our more illustrious forebears have done.

But the cost is becoming more and more painful for those of us on fixed incomes. Why do societies so often hold their conventions at the most expensive hotels and fix the price of the (usually cold and mediocre) meals so high that many attendees have to forego hearing the lunch and dinner speakers?

Not long ago I attended a day-long workshop which cost less than the dinner alone at some conferences. True, we sat on wooden pews, but the speaker was an expert in his field, there were door prizes, "freebies," exhibits, free parking, and a delicious cold lunch served by the host society.

I shudder to think what it will cost to attend the convention of the National Genealogical Society in Fort Worth this April. If only they would sell copies of the talks given at meal times and let us "country cousins" seek out a cafeteria!

Dear AGS Members:

To thank you for the honor you gave me
I can't find the right words, to save me!
But you give me far too much credit,
For what I enjoy most is to edit.
You've patiently borne my preaching and my puns--
Methinks AGSQ readers are the deserving ones!
So until someone else wants the place,
Or I can no longer lift a finger,
I'll be happy to occupy the editor's space
And in my life membership to linger.

PURPOSE: Austin Genealogical Society was organized in 1960 as a non-profit corporation chartered by the State of Texas. Its purposes are to collect and preserve genealogical and historical information about the people of Texas, particularly pertaining to the City of Austin and to Travis and surrounding counties; to instruct and assist members in genealogical research; and to publish public and private records of genealogical interest. Gifts and bequests to AGS are tax-deductible.

MEMBERSHIP is open to all upon payment of annual dues: $9, or Family Memberships $10 for two in same household, entitling them to one copy of each Quarterly, and two pages apiece (total of four) in the annual Ancestor Listings issue (June). DUES FOR ENSUING YEAR ARE PAYABLE on or before the FIRST DAY OF JANUARY each year. The March Quarterly will not be mailed to those whose dues have not reached the Treasurer by FEBRUARY FIFTEENTH. (It costs extra to make new mailing labels and mail separately, after the bulk mailing has been completed.) Send dues to AGS at Box 774, Austin TX 78767-0774. (Membership dues are same as Subscription.)

MEETINGS are held in the 4th-floor auditorium of Central Public Library, 800 Guadalupe, at 7:00 p.m. [Board meets at 6:30] on the 4th Tuesday of each month except December and August, normally. In 1983 the May and July meetings will be a day later because the auditorium is pre-empted for Library functions those Tuesdays. Visitors are welcome. On meeting nights, members and visitors may park free across the street east of the Library in the parking lot of the restored Hirshfeld House, after 5:30. We are grateful to the management for this favor.

AGS Quarterly is published late in March, June, September and November—sent free to all members. To save time and postage, send material for and letters about the Quarterly (except subscriptions) to Editor at 2202 W. 10, Austin TX 78703. Contributions are used at the discretion of the editor; neither she nor the Society can be held responsible for such material, which is subject to editing. DEADLINES: 10th of February, May, August, November.
