FAMILY LAND HERITAGE PROGRAM

Each year since 1974 the Texas Department of Agriculture has recognized families who have operated a farm or a ranch on the same land continuously for a hundred years. Brief histories of the award-winning families, naming successive land owners and their children and grouped under the respective county name, are published annually.

Since the attractive volumes (which include many heirloom pictures) have the names of only current land owners in their indexes, AGS Quarterly is attempting to remedy that deficiency as space permits. Instead of page numbers, we group the names by their counties (which cover only a few pages), assuming that the researcher will want to read about all his ancestor's neighboring relatives and friends.

Apologies are offered if some surnames are wrong - sometimes the narratives are hard to interpret as to generations - whether Tom, Dick and Mary are children of the founder or his daughter.

Married names are in parentheses in the book, but the genealogical form (maiden names in parentheses) is used herein. If a name is unknown, we put three dots in parentheses; nicknames are in quotation marks; editorial suggestions in brackets; "pic" indicates that there is a picture of family members or buildings on the given page.

ERRATA: Two items were omitted from the Family Land Heritage Program index in our last issue: (a) On page 22, in Williamson County, the ILSE family should have included Anna (...), and [family pic p. 89] after William. (b) On page 23, in Wise County, I missed "Mitchum, Hoyle [pic p. 96]." Sorry!

Volume 5 (1979) begins herewith.

IN MEMORIAM

Mazie Beatrice (Mayes) Bickler

Austin Genealogical Society mourns the loss of long-time member Mazie Bickler. She was born 8 December 1905 to James Coke and Sarah Inez (Kealy) Mayes in Frisco, Collin County, Texas. In her childhood the family moved to Saginaw and then to Cleburne, Texas, where she graduated from high school.

Subsequently moving to Austin, Mazie studied education at the University of Texas, but in her professional life she was executive secretary for the Texas Department of Welfare in its early years. Later, in Washington DC, she held positions of administrative responsibility in the legal field.

In 1946 Mazie married Ralph A. Bickler who was clerk of the Supreme Court of Texas. They were active in many civic and cultural organizations, he joining her in activities related to her Scottish forebears and she being equally interested in his German ancestors.

Mr. and Mrs. Bickler were charter members and president of Travis County Audubon Society. She was SW Representative and ardent spokesperson for Texas State Genealogical Society; the respected authority on parliamentary procedure in Austin Genealogical Society; a key member of Thankful Hubbard Chapter of the National Daughters of the American Revolution; the Scots of Austin; the Texas State Historical Association; the Congregational Church, et cetera.

Mazie departed this life on 18 April 1986; burial was in Oakwood Cemetery in Austin. She is survived by a brother, A. Kealy Mayes of Austin; two sisters: Inez (Mayes) Houston of Dripping Springs, Texas, and Jeanne (Mayes) Wilson of Santa Barbara, California, and 16 nieces and nephews.

Her sprightly spirit and warm friendliness will be sadly missed by her fellow members of Austin Genealogical Society, who are making an appropriate gift to the Genealogy Collection of Texas State Library in her memory. This consists of a set of books about immigrants from Germany. Volume One of Wuerttemberg Emigration Index (See Book Review section herein) has just been published, with five or six promised in the near future. Anyone who wishes to share in this project may send a personal contribution to the AGS treasurer, Mrs. Stanley L. Vinson, at 3106 Skylark Drive, Austin TX 78757.

Maxine (Fitzhugh) Gentry

Austin Genealogical Society is saddened by the news of the death of one of its charter members. Mrs. Harold Paul Gentry (sister-in-law of Herbert R. Gentry of Austin) died 6 May 1986 in Denison, Texas. Born Maxine Fitzhugh in Shreveport, Louisiana, she had traced her line back to the prominent Fitzhugh family in Virginia.

HAMMOND(S) - HAMMOND(S) - AMMON(S) etc. - Jean (Halden) Walker, a charter member of AGS, wishes to announce that the Hammond Family Association (registration fee $5 plus $15 annual dues) is preparing for the publication of its first quarterly publication. This will disseminate data and queries about Hammond families - all spellings. Write to Joseph C. Hammond, 1702 North Delaware St., Roswell NM 88201 for further details.
CONSOLIDATING AND DISPOSING OF YOUR GENEALOGY

(Article by Diane Dieterle in Genealogy Tomorrow)

This article was reviewed by Lois Nix in the March 1986 issue of The Reflector, Amarillo, Texas. The topic is so closely related to the survey made by Clarice Neal and reported on page 37 of our own March 1986 issue, and Lois Nix's commentary is so impressive that your editor asked leave to reprint it. She graciously granted us permission to excerpt from her article, and we hope our readers will profit thereby as much those who have had a chance to see the original.

DISPOSING OF YOUR GENEALOGY

Diane Dieterle's new publication Genealogy Tomorrow has an excellent article on how we can make plans for the time when someone else must dispose of our genealogy.

Those of us who have enthusiastically worked on our family trees for several years have found that paper multiplies on the dark! Almost before you know it, it has overflowed from notebook to box to file drawer to file cabinet to room.

If that has happened to you, isn't it time to consolidate what you have and provide for the disposition of this information should [when] you die?

None of us likes to think about that, but even worse is thinking about two other possibilities: (1) no one will be able to figure out what you did, and (2) your beloved genealogical papers might just wind up in the trash!

Before it gets any worse, take a good, hard look at what you already have and consider steps to consolidate your genealogy [genealogical findings]. Here are some things you might consider:

- Are there title pages on your binders/notebooks, giving the reader a clue to what is inside? An easy way to do this is to put a copy of your pedigree chart in the front, and circle whatever family(ies) are included in this binder/notebook.

- Do you have stacks of unrecorded and unfiled information—letters, certificates, census records, photocopied pages from books, etc.? Get some manila envelopes, write the surname on the outside, put the scraps in these envelopes and place them in a box in alphabetical order. Label the box "Unrecorded Genealogical Data".

- If you are truly ambitious, think about putting your loose research information into book form. I have seen two very good examples of "writing your files into book form" and they provide others with invaluable information that would otherwise probably be lost to the public. I am thinking of Pauline Gandrud's works, those many volumes of information she abstracted from Alabama court houses and cemeteries. Her files were arranged by county, and if you have ever looked at these books, you will notice some of them will have miscellaneous census records, deed records, some church records, a few marriage records—all from the county specified on the cover.

- Mrs. Gandrud was a genealogist who collected this information as she researched various family genealogies. You won't find all the marriage records for Greene County, Alabama, for example—just those that she recorded because she thought they might fit into her family research...the same kind of thing that you and I do in our research.

- Another excellent example is a new book by Patricia Freeman called Twenty-One Southern Families. Mrs. Freeman took the genealogical notes and files of a deceased friend, sorted them, arranged them by family name whenever possible, then by state and county, and typed every scrap of information into book form. You will have to take a look at this book to fully understand what I mean. It should be on every library book shelf—genealogical library, that is.
If you keep your certificates, letters, notes, records, etc. in a file cabinet, make sure the folders are labeled and in order. You might know that this is a letter from Aunt Sue and should be in the Dawson folder, but nobody else will.

Check your pictures to make sure you have printed the names on the back. [But it is better for the pictures not to write on them. Affix a gummed label on which you have typed the pertinent information.]

Now for the next step, disposing of your genealogy [genealogical materials]. Obviously it is going to be left behind when you pass on to meet all those folks you have searched for so diligently. You have worked so hard on this - shouldn't you be the one to decide where it goes?

Give this some thought: Does the person you want to give the fruit of your labor to really want it? Why not write him or her and ask?

Does the library/archives/university you want to give it to want it? Many do not have the staff to process someone else's family history collection, and many just plain don't want it.

If you want any of your material typed or published or distributed as I mentioned before, have you left money in your will for that to be done?

An hour's worth of thought can save your precious, expensive records from being destroyed. Once you have thought this out, make out a codicil to your will, providing for the disposition of your materials. A sample wording for such a codicil is provided in the September issue of Genealogy Tomorrow. I will share if anyone is interested.

[Although she does not ask for it, I would advise that you send a SASE and a quarter or so for a photocopy of the item Lois mentions. You can get her address from a recent copy of The Reflector in Texas State Library, etc. Sorry - I don't have the ZIP code at home.--HHR]

A KEY TO THE 1880 UNITED STATES FEDERAL CENSUS Compiled by U.S./Canada Reference Staff and Volunteers of the Genealogical Library of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Published by Heritage Books, Inc., 3602 Maureen Lane, Bowie MD 20715. Copyright 1986; 65 pp.; 5 1/2 x 8 1/2".

As the 1880 U.S. census covers 1,454 reels of microfilm, the researcher needs all the keys he can get! One such aid is the Soundex - a microfilmed card index to families which contained a child ten years or younger in June 1880. That index gives the county, enumeration district, sheet and line number of each such household, but, "prior to the preparation of the present guide, there was no way to determine which enumeration districts were on which roll of microfilm." Large cities and counties cover several rolls.

The Introduction to this valuable little book clearly explains the procedure for its use by several examples, making this key the answer to the researcher's prayer! Again, all genealogists are indebted to the Mormons for sharing the fruits of their labor.

The Key will be available at Texas State Library, Genealogy Collection.

Let the Buyer Beware! ROSS = LOSS. We have been advised that one Elizabeth Ross is now luring the public to buy her "family genealogies" that are on a par with those foisted on genealogists by Beatrice Bayley. What you get are some charts to fill out and some names taken from telephone directories; the rest is a canned mishmash of generalities of varying accuracy.
COLONY OF NORTH CAROLINA, 1765-1775, Abstracts of Land Patents, Volume Two, by Margaret M. Hofmann. (c) 1984 by author at Weldon, NC. Library of Congress Catalog Card Number 82-84 112. Hardbound; 6 x 9”; pp. 857 + viii; full-name index; place-name index.

This tremendous volume, containing abstracts of Royal grants, "completes Margaret Hofmann's abstracts of grants of patents for land in North Carolina throughout the colonial period, from 1663 through 1775, whether issued by the governor and council under authority of the Lords Proprietors of Carolina (1663-1729) or under authority of King George I, King George II, or King George III (1729-1775). There remains only one other group of records conveying original title to lands in colonial North Carolina, and abstracts of those are in preparation by Ms. Hofmann. That group is the body of indentured patents issued out of the proprietary land office of John Carteret, Earl Granville, from 1748 until his death in 1763; they are commonly called "Granville Grants." [Foreword by George Stevenson]

The book's Foreword is an excellent explanation of - and history of - the original distribution of land in North Carolina. Researchers in that region would do well to keep a copy at hand for frequent reference. Preceding the Foreword is a list of other books by Ms. Hofmann, which is enlightening in itself.

The Name Index, with both surname and given name in all caps, is extremely thorough. Almost every variation of spelling is made a separate entry: Hagan, Hagans, Hagons, Haggan, Haggins, Hagins. But when geographic locations show that the same man was referred to, the author combined spellings: Fulgum, Fulgrem, John, 2595, 7035, for example.

References are to specific deeds so one does not have to search all over the page for a name. Also, extra space between abstracts facilitates the search. Another helpful feature: at the top of each page is the name of the man who was the Royal Governor at the time that Patent Book was in use.

The Place Index deserves a review all its own. This reviewer has never seen such a detailed one - in fact, without forewarning, one might even miss a reference! The order of the entries is logical and grammatical: a single word before the possessive form (with apostrophe) of that word, before the plural form, before the plural possessive. For example, Adam's Line, Adams Creek, Adams' Improvement, Adams's Creek, Adamson.

Under B we find "Both sides of a branch of Sugar Creek, 2125", but under S, Sugar Creek, #2126 does not appear. The researcher must watch out for the distinction between Sugar Creek and the branches of Sugar Creek.

In Abstract #2111 may be seen "on the waters of Sugar Creek" but there is no index entry "on the waters", nor is #2111 under W, "waters of Sugar Creek," because it is the creek itself, not a branch, that is referred to. #2111 is one of many references under "Sugar Creek."

"Branch of Sugar Creek" also has an index entry; in short, look for every possible word (including the name of the land owner) that might be used in a description of the place name you are seeking. Don't count on cross references - not that I am criticizing the indexer for omitting some. There are nearly 100 pages in the Place Name Index as it is!

There is no doubt in my mind that every variant spelling in this book is verbatim, not due to the compiler's misreading, for she is thoroughly conversant with her field, and researchers are fortunate indeed to reap the benefits of her well-known expertise.

This book presents abstracts of 3,315 court-martial records found in 168 sets of orderly books for units serving under General George Washington or his commanding officers.

There is a line missing on page 1 - tantalizing! The book includes a fine Foreword and Introduction; Bibliography of important sources; comprehensive Index of places, topics, battles and people mentioned in the book, EXCEPT the alphabetized defendants and their commanding officers. The latter can be located in Francis B. Heitman's Historical Register of Officers of the Continental Army during the War of the Revolution.

Each abstract has one or more numbers in parentheses at the end. These refer to the source for that trial indicating variously the commanding officer of the regiment, place and time period. Thus, if you know that your soldier of a certain name served in North and South Carolina in the mounted troops, you may safely assume that he was not the artilleryman who was courtmartialed in New York State.

It was with trepidation that I scanned the index, my tension mounting as I found nearly every familiar surname I could think of, as well as many unfamiliar ones. Sure enough, four or five of my closest family names were there. But the geographical locations involved served to clear my direct representatives of those names. It might be a good idea to make preparations before you approach Summer Soldiers. You might alphabetize all your known Revolutionary ancestors, showing their home states, commanding officers, branch of service, and time spans as far as you have knowledge. Then when you encounter a John Brown in the list of court-martialed persons, you can (we hope) clear your ancestor without delay.

Even if it should prove to be your man, very probably his offense was minor and he was acquitted. Take the charge of "profane cussing and abusing the corporal" - what soldier has not been tempted to do that? Or the group convicted of "assisting and conniving in breaking into a store and stealing shoes" in February 1781 in New York - can we blame them? The Army was unable to issue enough boots to prevent their leaving red footprints in the snow. Charges run from stealing apples to going over to the enemy, and punishments range from a reprimand to 39 lashes to execution.

In the summer of 1778 a Virginia lieutenant was courtmartialed for wearing a hunting shirt instead of a coat on duty, but was let off with a reprimand. Many high-ranking officers were charged with serious offenses, but their services were so badly needed that they were acquitted.

All this is thoroughly discussed in the first six chapters, which give insights into the life of the rebel soldiers, the patriots who wrested our nation from the domination of England.

If you find an erring ancestor in this book, cheer up: At least you have proof that he did participate in the American Revolutionary War!

This splendid book is the forerunner of a set of an estimated six volumes that will index some 60,000 names of persons who made application to emigrate from Germany in the period from the late 18th Century to 1900, according to the dust jacket, but this reviewer noticed a 1911 but no 1700's in this volume. "This vast and previously inaccessible body of important primary source material" was microfilmed at Ludwigsburg, Germany. Wuerttemberg is a state in southwestern Germany from which nearly a million people filed for permission to emigrate, over the years.

Volume One will be hailed with delight by German descendants, as it furnishes ca 11,500 names of emigrants - date and place of birth [or age] - residence (district town) at time of application - application date [not necessarily date of emigration] - destination - microfilm number. Heretofore, researchers had the formidable task of reading the unalphabetized entries written in old German (gothic) script on unnumbered pages filed by name of the district town. The now rare skill of deciphering script is possessed by the three German-born compilers. It must be emphasized that this book is an index: as many as eight pages on one person may be found on the microfilm itself, so complete examination is advised.

Some who emigrated without permission later wrote back to renounce their citizenship rights and therefore are included herein. When an applicant's signature was found, that spelling of his name was used; otherwise, "the most common German way." For example, there are no Schmitts, just Schmidts, no matter how the name became anglicized in the U.S.A. This is helpful to the researcher who knows no German but would like to know the "correct" or predominant spelling of German surnames before Ellis Island officials messed them up!

Since names are alphabetized by surname and then given name, a non-family member may intrude into a group, but identical date of application and destination are strong indications of one household. Not all émigrés applied to go to North America in these records. Some whose destination in 1833 was Russia decided some 40 years later to resettle in U.S.A. rather than serve in the Czar's army, for instance, resulting in a vast influx of immigrants to the Great Plains.

Fortunately there is a table of abbreviations for the polysyllabic names of district towns and of countries. There is a line under every fifth name to assist the eye in tracing the columns across. The Introduction states that "& W" means "and Wife"; "& C" means "and Child/Children"; so it is assumed that "& F" means "and Family", but how that differs from "& C" is not explained.

An example of the Wuerttemberg Emigration Application is reproduced, demonstrating how grateful genealogists and historians should be to the three abstractors for their valiant efforts in deciphering these documents.

Volume One of Wuerttemberg Emigration Index should be on the New Books shelves of Texas State Library, Genealogy Collection, now or soon. It has been given in fond memory of Mrs. Mazie Beatrice (Mayes) Bickler, and subsequent volumes will be donated by Austin Genealogical Society and by individuals who wish to memorialize her in this way.
Tennesseans in Texas is not only a boon to researchers but a revelation as well. It certainly bears out the claim that "Tennessee is the mother of Texas." For example, in Harrison County, on the 1850 census, there were about 407 households that included at least one person born in Tennessee.

The arrangement is by counties in (almost) alphabetical order, as they appear on the microfilm. Although neither the census page number nor the number of the visitation is given, apparently the compilers proceeded through the 1850 census of Texas in order, copying completely each household that contained a native Tennessean (completely except for property valuations, that is).

Texans will notice that a number of place names are misspelled, which may be due to the enumerator's error, or to misinterpretation of handwriting, or merely to typing errors. For the benefit of those who may not know the correct spelling, we list first the erroneous and then the proper form of some names we noticed: Angeline - Angelina County; [in Bexar County] "Mission Concepcion, Cibilo and Sulpher Springs" - Concepcion - Cibolo [In my childhood, some natives of Gonzales pronounced it "Sea'llow"!] - Sulphur. The next location, "Cililo Creek and Clato", probably refers to Cibolo and Coleto creeks.

Burleson County appears as Burkeson and Burelson. Under Cameron, Starr & Webb Counties, just above Rio Grande Valley is an extraneous heading "Cass County, Texas", but geographically they are far apart. Judging by the absence of Hispanic names below it, I would say that it is the line "Rio Grande Valley, Precinct No. 1" that is out of place.

In Comal County we find New Braunfels listed as "New Bronsfels" - a mispronunciation heard all too often today! Goliad, said to be an anagram of Hidalgo (dropping the almost silent h), gets further distorted into Golaid.

On the microfilm, Guadalupe County is out of order, someone having conceived it to be spelled Gaudalupe. In Gonzales County, the river of that name gets a French twist: Guadaloupe. A few other misspellings that came to our notice: Lovaca for Lavaca; Matagorga & Matogorda for Matagorda [within which the name Wadsmith should be Wadsworth]; in Medina County, Castorville should be Castroville; Naverro County should be Navarro.

In Refugio County, "Col of Costumes" was not a museum agent or the wardrobe master for a Thespian troupe, but the Collector of Customs. WARNING: Tarrant County was microfilmed out of alphabetical sequence. It was placed after Ellis County because both had just been taken from Navarro District in 1849. A Simple Simon way to remember where it is: Tarrant County's principal city, Fort Worth, follows the letter E.

But the reader is not completely at the mercy of these little gremlins - in the front matter of Tennesseans in Texas is an excellent map of the Texas counties that existed in 1850, all legibly and correctly labeled, so spellings can be verified. In amusing contrast to this informative map (which shows that less than half the state was divided into counties) is one showing the vast area claimed by the Republic of Texas in 1836. To clarify the picture even more, Mr. and Mrs. Marsh helpfully included an 1845 map of "Principal Communities and Roads in Settled Areas of Republic of Texas."

This is a fascinating book that can be used to check your own interpretation of 1850 census data. You may think you have no ancestors from Tennessee, but perhaps some of them had "hired help" or a daughter-in-law born there. Check the index just in case! You may find it in Texas State Library, Genealogy Collection.
SCRMGEOUR ANCESTRAL CHART

Scrimgeour Genealogical Concepts has kindly sent us a most remarkable chart to be awarded as a door prize at our Workshop to be held on Saturday the 9th of August. "The Scrimgeour Ancestral Chart allows you to trace nine generations of ancestors - not only by name, but also by lifespan, locality, and occupation."

The block for a wife gives dates for her birth, death, and marriage, thus freeing a line in the husband's block. This line is designated "0" which may be used for Occupation or Other data, such as "Am. Rev. Soldier," "½ Cherokee," "Name was changed," "Mayor 1920-24," or whatever you may wish to mention.

The standard form of numbering is employed (You are 1, your father is 2, your mother 3, and so on), so arranged that a surname goes straight up the chart, with men's wives either between the generations or to the right of their names.

Another helpful feature is that generations are designated by numerals on the outside edges. This impressive chart is ideal for the advanced researcher who has identified as many as nine generations on at least a few lines, and an inspiration to the novice researcher, encouraging him/her to fill all the blanks. The only apparent drawback is that one must be able to print or write legibly in a very small space; or perhaps typewrite labels and stick them on. One would have to fold the chart several ways to insert it into a typewriter.

Present plans are to display the chart at our Workshop, with information about ordering it. Price: $7.95 + $2 for postage and handling (address below).

Scrimgeour Genealogical Concepts is in the process of developing a workbook made up of 65 surname cards allowing space for 715 different names. For further information write to them at Midtown Mall, Box 187, Worcester MA 01614.

MAPS RECEIVED

As a bonus for joining the Southern Historical Press Book-Purchasing Club, Austin Genealogical Society has gratefully received three interesting maps. One is called the "first actual survey of the state of North Carolina" and was published in 1808 by Jonathan Price and John Strother. It is 35 by 19 inches, and (like the other two) is printed in brown ink on buff-colored simulated vellum. Counties, rivers, creeks and ferries are legibly labeled, and some landowners are named (e.g., Doctr. Young, Wm. Polk). As an essential aid to the traveler, the map shows hundreds of roads or paths, and names many inlets.

Next in size (17½" x 20") is one entitled "Georgia - Early Roads and Trails circa 1730-1850" composed by Marion R. Hemperley. He imposed on a 1932 base map the Early Road Network researched by Dr. John H. Goff. The old roads are excellently marked, and everything else sublimated to their names - town and stream names require a magnifying glass. At the state boundaries, arrows point to larger cities outside Georgia. Ferries and fords are legibly indicated, usually bearing the name of the first owner.

The third map (17" x 11½"), copyright 1982 by The Rev. Silas Emmett Lucas Jr., depicts the Creation of Georgia Counties, 1777-1932. Two state outlines of identical size (a valuable factor) illustrate the changing boundaries and derivation of each present-day county - the original ones formed from headright and bounty grants; those formed from the lotteries of 1805, 1807, 1820, 1821, 1827, and 1832; and those formed by subdividing larger ones. Between the legend and the graphics, county histories are abundantly clear.
STRIKE-OUT BRINGS IN HOME RUN
AGS Member Wins Unexpected Prize

One of the founders of Austin Genealogical Society, Mrs. David C. Gracy, is as euphoric as a new inductee in the Hall of Fame these days. Not long ago, her nephew was rummaging around in a disused desk searching for an old baseball card collection that might net him a pretty penny today.

Unfortunately for him, the baseball fan struck out, but his effort won a greater prize for the whole family and for sundry historians: a cache of family papers concerning the Littlefield Ranch and its owners. One odd package consisted of brown envelopes sewn together. On the outside, in the handwriting of Alice Gracy's father, was inscribed "Important Information - Family of Arthur P. Duggan."

Mrs. Gracy had long known that while he was a student at the University of Texas at Austin, her father had written to both of his grandmothers to ask for genealogical data, but no one knew what or where the results of his inquiries were.

Now here, like a fast ball that miraculously plopped into a catcher's mitt, was an ink-inscribed letter from the paternal grandmother, Elizabeth Duggan, written in 1896! The information she sent to her grandson is of major-league importance to her great-granddaughter now, as it answers many questions and confirms many suppositions.

The penciled 1897 letter signed "E.P. Malone" (Eliza Polk Pitts married James Lafayette Malone) refers to Robert Malone who married Agnes Nichols in Georgia and had four daughters and two sons, but, like an umpire's unpopular decision, it does not settle some points satisfactorily.

These letters are in envelopes addressed to 1102 Lavaca in Austin, which was the residence of the John K. Donnans where Arthur Duggan lived when he first came to Austin to enter law school. Mr. and Mrs. John K. Donnan Jr. (AGS charter members) lived there many years, but after his death Doris Donnan sold it to the John Hills who moved it west of Pecos Street not long ago.

The letters (in perfect condition), along with the Littlefield Ranch papers, will be placed in the Southwestern Collection at Texas Tech in Lubbock. The excellence and prestige of these archives are largely due to the efforts and talents of Alice (Duggan) Gracy's son, Dr. David B. Gracy II, who organized them some years ago.

Alice's lucky strike this late in the game (she has been researching family history over twenty-five years) revives our hopes that some of our problems may also be solved unexpectedly!

There's nothing FISHy about microfiche! The French word fiche (FEESH) means card, ticket or label, and this microform consists of squares instead of a long continuous reel like the familiar microfilm.
NORTH CAROLINA-TEXAS GENEALOGICAL WORKSHOP

On Saturday the 9th of August 1986, from 8:00 to 4:00, the annual workshop or seminar of Austin Genealogical Society will be conducted at La Mansion Hotel, 6505 IH-35 North (IH-35 and 290 East).

In keeping with the Sesquicentennial theme, Mr. Chris LaPlante, State Archivist of Texas, and Mr. Michael Green, Reference Archivist, will point out important archival sources in Texas that are available to genealogical researchers.

And, since so many early Texans came from North Carolina, an eminent authority in that field, Mrs. Stahle Linn, will reveal to their descendants the secrets of successful research in that state. Jo White Linn is a Certified Genealogist and has served as president of North Carolina Genealogical Society and as editor of its award-winning Journal. A popular lecturer, author and publisher, she is listed in Who's Who in Genealogy and other prestigious publications.

The price of admission to this red-letter event is $20 for pre-registration prior to August 2nd and $25 at the door. This includes a salad buffet lunch, guaranteed to pre-registrants.

Many books, charts, forms etc. will be available from vendors on this occasion. In addition, a unique item will be offered: a limited number of Texas flags that have flown over the Capitol. Each is accompanied by a handsome, framable certificate showing exactly which day that particular flag rippled in the breeze under the blue sky of Texas - perhaps a day of significance to the purchaser.

Numerous valuable door prizes will be awarded to lucky registrants who are present when their names are drawn. (See pre-registration blank on the last page of this issue.) Each registrant may list on the blank FOUR ancestral surnames which will be placed on her/his name tag. Those who make application for reservations early enough will receive the extra bonus of having their ancestors (and their own names and addresses) printed on sheets that will be given to the attendees. In this way, people may meet hitherto unknown cousins!

Getting these sheets made up requires time, so you are urged to send in your individual registration form and check as soon as possible to the AGS Treasurer, Mrs. Julia M. Vinson, 3106 Skylark Drive, Austin TX 78757.

Anyone needing additional information may call our efficient Workshop Chairman, Mrs. Betty Kaiser, at (512) 459-0426.

AMERICAN INDIAN and BLACK GENEALOGY. In response to questions asked at one of the mini workshops conducted by AGS members recently, Member Clarice Neal has helpfully copied two pages that should be valuable to those who are pursuing Native American and/or Black family history. Apparently pages from the 1986 Hearthstone Bookshop catalog, they describe many books that are available on those subjects. They will be posted on the bulletin board near the photocopying machines at Texas State Library, Genealogy Collection. For specifically Cherokee data, inquire of Shirley Hoskins, 2321 Brookwood Drive, Chattanooga TN 37421.

Word comes from Kenneth Rutherford in Lexington MO that he is revising his 1979 Genealogical History of the Rutherford Family and will send a complimentary copy to our library, for which we wish to express our thanks. He asked to quote a passage from our review of the 1979 edition, which surprised me because I frankly stated that I could not figure out his numbering system. Perhaps he will use it to lead in to a fuller explanation of how it works.

SPECIFICATIONS FLOUTED

In spite of your Editor's pleading, some people (must be newcomers!) sent in charts for our Ancestor Listing Section with dates such as 03/09/75. This can lead to serious error, for some people will pass it on as the 3rd of September and others will interpret it as March 9th. AGS specifications: 3-letter abbreviations for the months. Also, #1 on a chart appeared as Mary Jane Brown SMITH, although her father and grandfather are Browns. [I opaqued it out.] Always use maiden names on charts. Several charts are dim photocopies, and one was printed on both sides. I hope printer will observe my note to print both sides.

Next year, sheets that do not meet our specifications will be returned to the sender for correction.
In response to an item on page 29 of our March issue, long-time member Eunice Barrow of San Antonio sent us the chart reproduced below. She explained that Abel White married three times: m/1 Elizabeth Kazee and had William Leonard and Amanda; m/2 Elizabeth Hamaton and had Caroline and Narcissa; m/3 Elizabeth (Crayton) Jones whose daughter Mary Elizabeth Jones married Abel's son William Leonard White. Narcissa married her sister's stepson, Drury Townsend, whose sister, Mary J. Townsend, married Abel's son, Frank White [which mother?]

John C. and Martha bought property from Wm. W. Thompson in Austin, Tx. August 1837. They also sold land to W. H. Peck and W. C. Hamilton in Travis Co. in August, 1854.

William Clements was reputed to be first shoemaker in Austin. He and his brother Blount moved around according to land records but stayed mostly in the Austin area, Fiskville for instance. William married Delila George in 1866 after her older sister, Martha died. They had two children.

William and Martha had 7 children as follows: James Atkinson, George Washington (#4 on facing page), Sarah Jane, John, Martha Belle, Delila and Andrew B.

I am researching the TOBIN, PHLEPS, and MARR Lines at the present time. The TOBIN Line came to the United States courtesy of Dublin, Ireland; the PHLEPS Line has been picked up in Putnam Co., Georgia and may be a Line of Phelps, originally from England immigrating to Massachusetts in 1630. The MARR Line is one I have made little progress on in finding where they came from to the United States. I pick up on the MARR Line beginning in 1822 in Tennessee.

CORNELIUS & JUDITH TOBIN, originally of Dublin, Ireland, settled in Barnwell District, South Carolina - Cornelius settling there in the 1790's and then bringing his family to his land holdings. He had two sons - John born 1781 and Daniel born 1783 in Ireland. JOHN TOBIN, my 3rd great-grandfather, left the plantation home and went to Georgia. He entered into marriage with one EMILY PHLEPS (FELPS) about 1813, according to their marriage certificate from Putnam Co., Georgia. After dealing in land transactions in Georgia, this couple made the move into the Creek Indian Nation - Alabama. My 2nd great-grandfather, CORNELIUS DAVID TOBIN, was born in the Creek Indian Nation, Mar. 11th, 1816, as were his brothers & sisters. CORNELIUS DAVID TOBIN & MARGARET JENKINS were married in Monroe County, Alabama, 1835. Nothing is known of the JENKINS family connection at the present time but will be pursued. JOHN JENKINS TOBIN, WILLIAM HENRY TOBIN AND EMILY TOBIN were born to this couple. CORNELIUS married a 2nd time to SARAH AGNES - maiden name unknown - and they had FRANK C., VIRGINIA, LEONARD, IDA & GARLAND in their family group in addition to children from the 1st marriage. My great-grandfather was DR. JOHN JENKINS TOBIN, born Mar. 30, 1838 in Alabama, was a graduate of Tulane University Medical School, New Orleans, a veteran of the Confederate Army and member of a medical team that explored the length of the Amazon River in South America. After 2-3 years in So. America he returned to Arkansas, where he had apparently moved - when a young boy. In El Dorado, Arkansas he married FANNIE IDA MARR on Aug. 16, 1870 and set out for Austin, Texas. He practiced medicine here as well as owning and operating a pharmacy, stationery & gift shop, being the 1st president of the public transportation company in Austin - streetcar - being the one who saw to it that Austin had its first dam system, and was an investor in the early Texas oil fields - an successful investor, I might add. He & his wife had seven sons: CORNELIUS DAVID, DONALD M., JAMES PETTIT, JOHN HENRY, CHARLES EDWIN, ROBERT WALLACE & HAMILTON P. TOBIN. The young-est died as an infant. Dr. Tobin died Oct. 12, 1904 & Mrs. Tobin died Feb. 20, 1920. My grandfather was JAMES PETTIT TOBIN & ARTIE LANNAM KUYKENDALL was my grandmother - their daughter, LUCY ANN TOBIN HEILIG, my mother.

Artie & Pradeck (Dona, Doughton, N.)

In the book I found, he had died in Reuenance.

In that family line, the first person I could find was a Reverend Mr. J. H. Johnson. He was born in the old parsonage of the church, where he was brought up. He was a member of the old parsonage, and is buried there.

Hugh D. Morgan was the first person I could find in the old parsonage. He was born in the old parsonage and is buried there.

On the family line, I have no knowledge of this person.

TEXAS NEWSPAPER PROJECT

Starting in July, the University of Texas at Austin and Texas State Library will join the U.S. National Newspaper Project whose goal is to catalogue and ultimately microfilm the estimated 300,000 newspapers that have been published in North America since 1690.

UT-Austin has about 2,000 Texas and 2,000 other U.S. papers in its collections. The oldest in Barker Texas History Center is the Texas Gazette, published in 1829 in Brazoria. "Newspaper publishing in Texas began in 1813 with the Gaceta de Tejas, published - one time only - in Nacogdoches" (On Campus, a publication for faculty and staff at UT-Austin, April 28 - May 4, 1986).

As more and more repositories join in this nation-wide listing of individual holdings, the eventual result will be a computerized catalogue of all U.S. Newspaper listings, which will inform researchers which libraries have what papers - with, presumably, their dates of issuance. The tremendous value of this project for genealogists, archivists, historians, librarians, et al. cannot be overestimated. It will be the fulfillment of a dream we never dared hope for!

Ancestors of Clay W. Seaton

THE SEATONS: James Seaton was born in Scotland 19 Jul 1751. He married Mary Clark, and they came to Pennsylvania with their children in about 1805. Their youngest son, Thomas P. Seaton b. 24 May 1797, was my great-grandfather. Thomas married Elizabeth Brown. They lived in Greene County, which is in the far southwest corner of the state, bordering West Virginia on both the west and south. One of their sons, Franklin, b. 22 Oct 1832, was my grandfather. Franklin was married twice; his second wife Adeline (my grandmother) was the daughter of Samuel Hartley.

THE HARTLEYS: Matthias Hartley was born 5 Jun 1784 in Greene County, PA and was the son of James Hartley and Mary Smalley. Matthias married Hannah Leslie, of the same county, who was the daughter of Patrick and Mary Leslie. Matthias and Hannah had a family of six sons and three daughters. The eldest son, Samuel b. 1 Sep 1805, was my great-grandfather. Samuel married Elizabeth Hammers.

In the 1870's a large number of people in Greene County migrated to Iowa, most of them settling in Ringgold County, which is in the southern part of the state. Samuel Hartley was one of the leaders and sponsors of this migration. He had a large family, all girls except one, and all were married and had families of their own. Most of his daughters and sons-in-law accompanied him to Iowa. In making the trip he chartered a RR boxcar to transport the household possessions of his family and his children's families.

My father, Samuel Hartley Seaton (named for his maternal grandfather) was the eldest son of Franklin Seaton and Adeline Hartley, and was five years of age when he came with his parents and grandparents from Greene County, PA to Ringgold County, Iowa. On 3 Jul 1900 Sam married Addie Bonnet, daughter of Edwin and Louisa Marshall Bennett.

THE BENNETTS: The earliest Bennett ancestors of whom we have record are Daniel F. Bennett b. 20 Jun 1784, and his wife Elizabeth Bartol, who lived in Cumberland County, Maine (near Portland). Their son Ebenezer b. 5 Dec 1809, was my great-grandfather. He married Sally Anderson b. 1817 and in 1857 they moved with their children from near Freeport, Maine to Henry County, Illinois. Their youngest son, Edwin, came to Ringgold County, Iowa in the late 1860's to visit his brother Francis, and there he met his future wife, Charity Louisa Marshall, the daughter of Thomas Dixon Marshall. They had one daughter, Sarah Adelaide, who was always known as Addie.

THE MARSHALLS: The Marshall line has been traced back to Jacob Marshall, who died in Ireland 1 May 1743. The first of the line to come to America was Jacob's grandson John Marshall, born in Tyrone County, Ireland in 1720. He came to Pennsylvania, and was married to Ruth Hadley in 1742. Their son Isaac was born in Chatham County, NC in 1768 and was the first to change the spelling from Marshall to Marshall. He married Ruth Doan and they lived in Jefferson County, Tennessee and in Warren County, Indiana. The eleventh of their 13 children was Thomas Dixon Marshall, who was my great-grandfather. His second wife, Sally Brown, who was my great-grandmother, died in Indiana in 1844. A few years later Thomas came with his third wife and his children to Ringgold County, Iowa. His daughter Louisa married Edwin Bennett on 6 Mar 1870.

Ancestors of Myrna Morss Seaton

THE MORSS'S: My immediate ancestors have all spelled the name as Morss, but the same name is variously spelled Moss, Mors, Morss, and Morse. The earliest Morss ancestor that I have traced is Samuel Benjamin Morss, who was born in Germany in 1730 and came to America in time to serve (with his two eldest sons) in the Colonial army during the Revolution. His 4th son, Benjamin, my g.g. grandfather, was also born in Germany. On 28 Dec 1800 in New Jersey he was married to Hannah Parick. Their son John Morss, born in New York State, came westward to Dearborn County, Indiana, where he married Elizabeth Jordan in 1833. They moved to Knox County, Illinois, where they lived for the remainder of their lives.

One of John and Elizabeth Morss's sons was Andrew Jackson Morss. He was born in Knox County, Illinois on 23 Dec 1850 and attended Knox College in Galesburg, Illinois. Shortly prior to 1875 he came to Wayne County, Iowa, where he married Amelia Thompson, daughter of Robert and Eleanor Jane Walker Thompson. They were my grandparents.

THE THOMPSONS: Robert Thompson b. 8 Sep 1814 in Pennsylvania, married Eleanor Jane Walker, also a Pennsylvania native. They migrated to Wayne County, Iowa by covered wagon in March 1856, when their daughter Amelia was four weeks old.

Nineteen years later Amelia married Andrew Jackson Morss. After living for a time in Andrew's old neighborhood in Illinois they moved to Ringgold County, Iowa, where they lived for the remainder of their lives. While still in Illinois their two oldest sons were born. One of these was my father, Robert Fulton (Bert) Morss. He grew to manhood in Ringgold County, and on 25 Nov 1916 he married Gussie Edith Ryan, daughter of John and Eleanor Jane Christy Ryan.

THE RYANS: John Patrick Ryan was born 26 Nov 1823 in Ireland, the son of Michael and Johanna Ryan. He married Catherine Purcell, daughter of Edmond and Johanna O'Keefe Purcell, and came to America some time around 1840. They had three children, one of whom, John, became my grandfather. John's mother, Catherine, was a sister of John Baptist Purcell, the prominent Catholic churchman, who was a Bishop and later became Archbishop of Cincinnati. Another brother, Edward, was also a priest. John Patrick urged his son John to become a priest and carry on the tradition established by his uncles; but young John refused. His father was angered, and dismissed his son from his home. John Ryan then enlisted in the Union army in the Civil War. He was severely wounded in the battle of Chicamauga and again at Resaca.

John Ryan married Eleanor Jane Christy in 1862. They had 16 children, 13 of whom lived to adulthood. My mother, Gussie, was third from the youngest in this large family.

THE CHRISTYS & JULIANS: The only information we have on my g.g. grandfather Henry Christy is that on 3 Mar 1842 he married Rachel Julian, who was born 15 Jan 1825 in Allen County, Ohio. Rachel's father, William Julian was born in France and her mother's name was Susanna. Henry and Rachel were the parents of Eleanor Jane Christy b. 20 Apr 1844, in St. Marys, Ohio. On 31 Dec 1862 she married John Ryan.

FRANCES MARION INMAN

Frances Marion Inman, my grandmother on my mother's side, was born to Samuel Oliver Inman and Ida Mae Cureton on October 16, 1911 in Kelton, South Carolina. Since there were no available hospitals then, Frances was born in a house that she lived in for several years out in the country. This house had a dogtrot with rooms on each side and the kitchen and dining room on back. They lived with her grandparents, Daniel and Mary Ellen Inman, who owned the house. Both of her grandfathers were in the Civil War. One of her grandfathers, Thomas Jefferson Cureton, was a prisoner of war at Point Lookout. While he was there he took a button off of his uniform and carved it into a ring which we still have.

A few years later the family moved into a house of their own just a few miles away on a farm. Frances didn't work much on the farm, though she sometimes picked potatoes. Other things they grew were cotton, green beans, peas, tomatoes, corn, mustard greens, turnip greens, and a little kale. This house had several bedrooms, a dining room, kitchen, and back porch. Frances went to school in a one-room school that had grades 1 through 11 in the same room, though Frances didn't think it was very crowded. She only went to this school for the first and second grades since that was when they moved into town.

After living in the country for nine years, they moved to the town of Union, just 13 miles west of Kelton, with a population of 7,000 to 8,000. The home they moved into was where they inventor of the world's first typewriter, John Pratt, spent his boyhood days. This house, which sat on 45 acres, was Frances' favorite house. It also had a large pasture that they rented out to someone who owned horses and mules, so luckily they didn't have to farm the land. Frances remembers carrying around a jar to pick potato bugs off potatoes, since back then they didn't use sprays to kill the bugs. In front of the house there was a large yard with lots of flowers and trees including a huge pecan tree, apple tree, fig tree, holly trees, magnolia tree and climbing roses. Frances and her family only lived on the first floor with 5 large rooms and hall. On the second floor were four large rooms, and Frances often played with dolls in the attic.

Since there was no central heating in the house, each room had grates in them, though the fires were usually only in Frances' parents room and the kitchen. Frances didn't mind, though, because she was the only one in the house with a feather bed which was very warm and comfortable. They also used many homemade quilts to stay warm. So that she wouldn't get cold, Frances remembers jumping out of bed to dress in front of the stove in the kitchen. Baths were also taken in the kitchen with a tub full of water.

She began school in Union in the 3rd grade and graduated from Union High School (8th through 11th grades) in three years instead of the usual four years. She did this because of a new program that allowed students to finish in three years by going to summer school. Though Frances and another girl began this program, Frances was the only one who finished and graduated on August 28, 1928, since the other girl moved away.

One of Frances' teachers, Mrs. Beatty, was interested in her going to college, so she took Frances to Greenville Woman's College to have lunch with the President. In the fall of 1928, Frances went to Greenville Woman's...
College for a year. Since she had to eat at college one Sunday a month, she ate with her Aunt Mary and Uncle Jim in Greenville the other Sundays.

The college was much more strict then than it is now. They were allowed to walk a couple of blocks in front of the school during the evening, and visit in a nearby store, but they couldn't speak to any strangers and couldn't go out with men unless they received special permission. When they went to church on Sunday they had to wear long sleeve dresses, hats, and gloves.

During Frances' freshman year there were about 60 freshmen and maybe 300 students in all. Later Furman University joined with Greenville Woman's College (GWC) to become a university, so now stores are built where the college used to be.

When Frances left GWC for the summer she planned to return in the fall. In the meantime, her classmates, who finished high school in the usual four years instead of three, had taken the Civil Service Examination and left for Washington, D.C., to become nursing students in Gallinger Municipal Hospital at Capitol City School of Nursing. Frances decided that this was what she wanted to do, too, so she took the exam and was accepted to come in January, 1930. Since Frances needed extra money to buy shoes and hose for training, she spent two-and-a-half months being a waitress at the Hobnob Restaurant in Union which was owned by a friend's brother.

In the fall of 1932 several nurses decided to learn typing and shorthand. So Frances, along with the others, enrolled at Hines Junior High School in Washington, D.C. This turned out to be the place where Frances and her future husband, Victor Westergard, met.

Frances finished nurses training in February, 1933. On December 2, 1933, Frances and Victor were married in Alexandria, Virginia, and made their home in Washington for the next 40 years.

In light of the need for immediate help in purchasing already-ordered census indexes which has been expressed by Texas State Library's Genealogy Collection Supervisor Jan Carter (See AGS Quarterly, March 1986, page 34), the following action has been taken by our Society:

A fund called FRIENDS OF THE TEXAS STATE LIBRARY GENEALOGY COLLECTION BY AGS has been established in accordance with AGS's continuing policy of Genealogy Collection support. This fund was set up to hold donated money toward a specific need seen by the Society. In future, the Board of Directors will have the power to establish the need(s) for which the money may be spent. The permanent Account Standing Committee will be appointed by the President of Austin Genealogical Society in accordance with the procedure governing this account.

This policy was adopted on 28 April 1986 by the Board of Directors. Details of the procedure for handling the account will be forthcoming from the Account Standing Committee, chairman of which is Dr. James B. Carter; vice-chairman is Homer Taylor. This information will be published over the next several months.

If YOU can help alleviate this desperate need, please fill out the form below, clearly indicating on your check that it is for "F.O.T.T.S.L.G.C. by A.G.S." and mail them to our Treasurer, Julia M. Vinson, 3106 Skylark Dr, Austin TX 78757.

PRE-REGISTRATION FORM - AGS WORKSHOP - Sat. 9 Aug. 1986 - North Carolina - Texas (See page 52)

Make your $20 check payable to AGS and send with this form BEFORE AUGUST to Mrs. Julia M. Vinson, 3106 Skylark Dr, Austin TX 78757. ($25 after August 2nd; salad buffet lunch guaranteed to pre-registrants.) Only ONE registrant per form, as it may be used for drawing. YOU MUST BE PRESENT TO WIN a Door Prize.

PURPOSE: Austin Genealogical Society was organized in 1960 as a non-profit corporation chartered by the State of Texas. Its purposes are to collect and preserve genealogical and historical information about the people of Texas, particularly pertaining to the City of Austin and to Travis and surrounding counties; to instruct and assist members in genealogical research; and to publish public and private records of genealogical interest. Gifts and Bequests to Austin Genealogical Society are tax-deductible.

MEMBERSHIP is open to all upon payment of annual dues: $9 per individual, or Family Membership at $10 for two in the same household, entitling them to one copy of each Quarterly, and two pages apiece (a total of four pages for $10 whether one or two persons) in the Ancestor Listing Issue (June). [See AGS QUARTERLY below.]

DUES FOR THE ENSUING YEAR ARE PAYABLE on or before the FIRST DAY OF JANUARY each year. Members who have not paid by February 1st will be dropped from the membership roll and will not receive the March Quarterly until dues and charge for mailing separately are paid. Send payments to AGS Treasurer at 3106 Skylark Drive, Austin TX 78757. SUBSCRIPTION TO THE QUARTERLY is the same as membership dues. All are on a calendar-year basis; if you join late in the year and pay the full amount, you are entitled to back quarterlies for that year if any are available (we order few extras), but there will be a fee for mailing them.

MISSING COPIES. If your Quarterly does not reach you by the 10th of April, July, October or December, notify the Society at Box 1507, Austin TX 78767-1507 (but Exchange Quarterly Chairmen use TEXAS STATE LIBRARY address given on inside front cover). Members who fail to give the Society sufficient advance notice of a change of address will be responsible for the postal fee for returned copies and for remailing the copy at individual rather than bulk mailing rates.

MEETINGS of the general membership are held at 7:30 p.m. on the fourth Tuesday of each month except August and December, while the Board of Directors meets at 6:30 unless changed, in which case Directors will be notified. MEETING PLACE: Room 12, First Baptist Church, 901 Trinity. Enter on east side (Neches Street). Free parking in lot south of church, 9th & Trinity. Visitors are welcome.

AGS QUARTERLY is sent free to all members about the middle of March, June, September and November. To save time and postage, send material for and letters about the Quarterly (except subscriptions and missing copies) to Editor at 2202 West 10th Street, Austin TX 78703. Contributions of material are welcome and will be used at the discretion of the Editor, who may edit them to conform to our format. Neither the Society nor the editor shall be held responsible for such material; the contributor must vouch for its accuracy or disclaim it, and is responsible for copyright infringement. Opinions expressed by contributors do not necessarily reflect the consensus of the Society.

DEADLINES: 10th of February, May, August and October

ANCESTOR LISTING PAGES must reach the Editor at 2202 W. 10th, Austin TX 78703 by the TENTH OF MAY. They must be BLACK and LEGIBLE, whether typewritten, hand-printed, computer printout, or superior calligraphy. Allow space for binding at inner margins of facing pages, carefully checking horizontal charts. Otherwise, the Editor has to place some upside down to prevent loss of data in binding/stapling.

There are practically no restrictions on the kinds of material you may submit: for example, Lineage or Family Group charts, narratives, census data, family Bible records, cemetery inscriptions, queries, or a combination of forms, just so it is not under copyright. Be sure to proofread your material so we won't disseminate faulty data.

It is important to have your name and address on each page.
