FAMILY LAND HERITAGE PROGRAM

Each year since 1974 the Texas Department of Agriculture has recognized families who have operated a farm or ranch on the same land continuously for at least a hundred years. Brief histories of the award-winning families, naming the successive land owners and their children and grouped under the respective county name, are published annually.

Since the attractive volumes (which include many heirloom pictures) have the names of only the current land owners in their indexes, AGS Quarterly is attempting to remedy that deficiency, as space permits. Instead of page numbers, we group the names by their counties (which cover only a few pages each, and are in alphabetical order), assuming that researchers will want to read all about their ancestors' neighboring relatives and friends.

Apologies are offered if some surnames are wrong - sometimes the narratives are hard to interpret as to generations - whether Tom, Dick and Mary are the children of the founder or of his daughter. And, since these books use parentheses to indicate maiden name, nickname, previous married name, or future married name, it is sometimes impossible to determine just what is meant.

In AGS Quarterly, the usual genealogical practice is followed: Maiden names in parentheses. If a maiden name is unknown, we put three dots in parentheses; nicknames are in quotation marks; editorial suggestions in brackets; "pic" indicates that there is a picture of family members or buildings on the given page.

Since Volume 10 covers two years, on page 99 the county names start over for 1985. To save space, we have alphabetized together the honorees with the same surname in both years, so if you don't find your ancestors in the first section of Anderson County, look in the later one, when consulting the book.

This continuing feature started in AGS Quarterly Vol. XXIV No. 4, Nov. 1983.

Ba Ba black sheep where can ye be? I have looked high and low and never found thee.

You might have had a black sheep in your family, but all of my ancestors were perfect angels, with unblemished records and beyond reproach! There is not a single black sheep among the 110+ names on which I have done research!

The only person that I can think of that had an infinitesimal amount of imperfection was my great grandfather, Willis Hopkins.

Hampton Hopkins, and his wife Suzanna came from Virginia to North Carolina sometimes in the early 1800's. They had the following children: Wiley, Elijah, Eli, Polly, Sarah, Elisha, Benjamin, John, Elizabeth, James, Willis (my great grandfather), Callie, Bethana, Henry, William, and Rachel. Willis was born in 1821 in Randolph County, North Carolina. About 1840 he must have moved with his parents and the rest of the clan to Campbell County, Georgia. There he met, wooed, courted, and finally married 22 year old Margaret Jackson, daughter of William and Isabella (McCully) Jackson on 23 March 1846 in Campbell County, Georgia.

He must have been a very loving husband, for he and Margaret had at least seven children. They were William Jackson, born 1848, Sarah E., born 1850, Berry (my grandfather), born 1852 in Campbell County, Georgia, Jane M., born 1854, Charles, born 1857, Julia Ida, born 1859, and Emma Josephine, born 1861.

Willis was a farmer in 1850 in Campbell County, Georgia. In 1855 he bought 50 acres in Campbell County, Georgia. During the early days of America, farming was a hard way of life. It was back breaking labor. Maybe farming wasn't in his blood, or possibly he had a crop failure, because in 1856 he bought a lot in the town of Palmetto, Georgia. He must not have liked Palmetto too well, or maybe he just liked to move around, for in 1856 he was a carpenter in Bowdon Village, Carroll County, Georgia. I am sure he visited his brother Wiley at his homestead, just out of Palmetto, and his father's grave nearby, as copy of photograph #1 shows.

When the Yankees attacked his beloved Southland, Willis, like so many other of his patriotic neighbors, joined the Confederacy to fight Yankee aggression (or be ridden out of town on a rail). He was 40 at the time, not a young man at all. Can you imagine how Margaret felt when he joined Company B, Cobb's Legion, of the Bowdon Volunteers, and marched off to war? I can see her now with a staircase of children, ages 13, 11, 9, 7, 4, 2 years, and a 2 month baby in her arms, wondering if she would ever see her husband of 15 years again.

The Bowdon Volunteers came from the town and its college. Bowdon College offered a literary as well as an engineering degree. When the war began, 141 out of 160 students enlisted for service. Of these 141 men who volunteered in 1861, only eleven survived to return and hardly a one came back without at least one or more wounds. The volunteers were soon joined by the local patriots, usually older men. In some cases, the fathers of the students offered their services and went off to war with their sons. There was a well-founded tradition in Bowdon that every able-bodied young man in the community either joined Captain McDaniel's company or enlisted in some other branch of military service. In the copy of photograph #2 of a group of Bowdon volunteers, one could be Willis.

Willis was among the lucky soldiers. It might have been a good thing that he learned how to use a hammer, saw, and level, for he spent most of his time as a carpenter at Camp Marion, Yorktown. Willis was also in the ambulance corps for a while. However, he didn't get out of the war unscathed. He was wounded and on furlough during 1864 in Bowdon, Georgia. He worked his way up from Private to 5th Sergeant. He served in the Confederate Army for three and a half years.

Six years following the war might be called the "missing link years". I have not been able to find out where Willis was from 1865 to 1871. He is not listed on the 1870 Georgia or Texas census indexes. He could have been traveling with his family during the census years. They probably took some back road as a shortcut to Texas and got lost. I understand the roads and maps of yesterday are not quite what they are today.

The next place he bought land was in St. Elmo, a "suburb of Austin", Travis County, Texas. He must have liked to own a lot of land, or wanted to play farmer again, because in 1880 he bought 59 acres on Boggy Creek, Travis County, Texas, one acre for each... of his 59 years of age.\textsuperscript{14} (I would have stuck to carpentry)!

At least five of Willis' & Margaret's seven children came to Texas with them: Sarah, Berry, Jane, Julia, & Emma. Their brother William, resided in Franklin County, Tennessee. I cannot locate Charles.\textsuperscript{15} In 1879, Berry and Elnora McElroy who had been married two years boarded on the south side of Live Oak Street (now West 2nd Street) in Austin.\textsuperscript{16} Berry worked as a butcher in a store similar to the one in photograph #3.\textsuperscript{17} Willis had the opportunity to get some choice beef to cook at Sunday barbecues along the banks of the Colorado River. After the barbecues he and the family could have strolled down Congress Avenue which is shown in photograph #4.\textsuperscript{18}

Margaret, Willis' wife, died and was buried around 1881 in the Boggy Creek Masonic Cemetery, a few yards from the beautiful banks of Boggy Creek, Travis County, Texas.\textsuperscript{19} During my recent three day visit to Austin, I found Willis' & Margaret's graves. It is an older cemetery with large cedar trees as the copy of the photograph #5 shows.\textsuperscript{20}

Willis must not have liked cooking his food, and sleeping alone, for on 15 November 1885 he took another wife. Mary E. Baggett, 33 years younger, became the second Mrs. Hopkins.\textsuperscript{21}

In 1899, at the ripe old age of 78, he applied for a Confederate pension. He had both rheumatism, caused from a gun shot wound, and bad health, as most old people have. He had a few farm animals, a wagon, buggy, and farming tools, valued at $145. He was awarded the pension.\textsuperscript{22}

In November 1899, Willis deeded his wife Mary the 59 acres, "in consideration of the love and affection I bear my wife, and for further consideration that her labor has largely paid for the land."\textsuperscript{23} In December 1889 Willis' children from his previous marriage to Margaret gave up their mothers' one half inheritance in the property on Boggy Creek.\textsuperscript{24} Possibly the reason they gave up their land was that they were happy to have someone to take care of their daddy the rest of his life.

On the 20th of March 1904, old age finally caught up with this 83 year old patriarch, and he joined his first wife Margaret in the Boggy Creek Masonic Cemetery, just a few miles south of Austin, Texas.\textsuperscript{25} I wonder if he had a large turnout at the graveside? He was a Mason so I am content that he had a nice burial. Three of his children still lived in Travis County. Emma had married G.W. Rountree and had moved to Blanco County, Texas.\textsuperscript{26} Berry had moved just down the road to Luling, Caldwell County, Texas.\textsuperscript{27} He could have brought his family, along with his 16 year old son, my father, to the funeral. They probably came in a horse & buggy.

Ten years after Willis' death, in March of 1914, Mary received a Confederate pension as Willis' widow. She passed away on 23 January 1925.\textsuperscript{28}

The 59 acres that once belonged to Willis & Margaret probably went to Mary's heirs. That is the only thing that could be considered a little "black sheepish".
Willis should have asked Mary to will the land to his children upon her death. If he had, maybe I would own a city block in Austin, Texas now, and wouldn't be trying to win a prize.

Long-time AGS member Roy Tom Hopkins (who sometimes signs himself Tom R. Hopkins) sent us the above article with permission to reprint it signed by Birdie Holsclaw, President of Colorado Genealogical Society, Inc., of Denver. It was copyrighted in 1988.

The Colorado Genealogical Society had a contest to determine which of its members would write the best article about a "Black Sheep" in his/her family. Tom received a "Special Citation" for his article, which (on a scale of 1 thru 10) was graded 8 on: following Contest Rules, Format/Appearance, Writing - Mechanics, and Writing - Style. He was awarded a 10 on Documentation - Quality and on Documentation - Style, and a judge appended complimentary remarks, deeming his entry "excellent."

Unfortunately, we cannot reproduce here the five pages of very dark photocopies of interesting photographs that accompanied the article, as they would be only black blobs. Some of them pertain to Austin in early days, and came from Austin History Center.

Congratulations, Tom, and thanks for sharing this with us.

A HISTORY OF LEWISTON, MAINE with a Genealogical Register of Early Families by Janus G. Elder. Edited by David and Elizabeth (Keene) Young. Published 1989 by Heritage Books, Inc., 1540-E Pointer Ridge Place, Bowie MD 20716. 5 1/2 x 8 1/2", softbound, ix + 480 pp.; maps, full-name index; $30 + $3 shipping charge. Order #E510 from the publisher.

The first part of A History of Lewiston, Maine is a reprint (with some corrections and modernization of state abbreviations) of a narrative history of Lewiston written by Janus G. Elder and published in 1882. This 84-page section traces back to the earliest settlers, about 1630, their land deeds, disputes, and origins. It covers industrial, political, ecclesiastical and educational events; organizers and pastors of churches are named, as well as early school teachers. City officials from 1795 to 1891 are listed. There is a detailed history of the major commercial firms - Androscoggin One-Price Clothing Company seems to have financed the publication of Mr. Elder's book.

Lists of names in categories include bank officials, physicians, merchants; and an amazing number of associations, including two or three for women!

Next appear eight short biographies (mentioned here lest they be overlooked by the reader) followed by a history of Bates College.

The regular Biographical Sketches (a paragraph per person - per man, actually) are easily spotted, as the subject's name is in boldface caps and his children in boldface caps and lower case.

Helpful appendices include Military Records, Heads of Families in 1847, Early Lisbon Cemetery Records, and Cemetery Inscriptions. The last, being in alphabetical order, are not included in the Index, which is preceded by a Bibliography.

Maps of several nearby townships are tipped in after the title page.

This work might be described as "the best of both worlds" for it combines dedicated efforts to capture facts of yesteryear while they were readily available with modern meticulous care in researching and correcting Mr. Elder's inadvertent errors, the organization and publication of his notes for the family register section, and finally the monumental task of indexing.

Kudos to Mr. and Mrs. Young for a Herculean task well done!

Vol. 3, Marriages, 1638-1844, 251 pp., paper, $17.50T #H063.

Order from publisher (NOTE SUITE, NUMBER OMITTED FROM REVIEW ABOVE.)

In 1886, the Town of Dedham published a volume entitled The Record of Births, Marriages and Deaths, and Intentions of Marriages in the Town of Dedham ... 1635-1845. The occasion: the 250th Anniversary of the town's settlement; the editor: Town Clerk Don Gleason Hill. Two years later he published Dedham's Church and Cemetery Records.
The inevitable errors in his publication were doubly hard to check and correct because Mr. Hill did not cite his sources, but Mr. Hanson has done a prodigious amount of research and achieved a dependable, expanded sourcebook in these three volumes. Genealogists will rejoice that the original books, with their awkward format, shaky indexing, and "errors of omission and commission" have been replaced.

As set forth in the Introduction to Volume 1, source materials used include the Vital Records in the Town Clerk's possession; records of the various churches in Dedham and surrounding towns; and a 50-year span of diaries kept by Dr. Nathaniel Ames, who recorded not only the babies he had delivered but others that he had heard of. All of these sources are minutely coded in each entry.

The format is logical and legible, with generous space between groups. Surnames are in bold Caps with variant spellings [e.g., WHITING (Whitting/Whiteing/Whitting)] on the line below. Given names are in alphabetical order, with each followed by s. or d. for son or daughter of John & Mary; next, date of birth, and then date of baptism (if available). It is easy enough to spot other children of the same parents because of alignment of their names immediately after the name of the child.

This reviewer did not notice the baptism of any "child of color," but the exact birth dates of four are copied from Dr. Ames's diary.

This book should prove invaluable to researchers. The significance of a person's being baptized in a church other than the First Parish Church should inspire a study of the history of Dedham.

Sources for the copious information in Volume 2, Deaths 1636-1844, include the Vital Records in the Town Clerk's possession, records of the churches in Dedham, gravestone inscriptions, private manuscript necrologies, and entries from the diaries (1758-1822) of Dr. Nathaniel Ames. Each source is coded.

The editor noted that death notices from newspapers as far back as 1793 will appear in a subsequent publication. He also stated that all dates have been corrected to New Style for month and year but no correction has been attempted for day. This reviewer deprecates his use of figures for months in dates, and can only hope he was consistent in his choice of putting month before day. There's always the possibility that a hasty researcher will interpret 5/7 as the fifth of July. I suppose he decided that 5/7/1715 is two spaces shorter than 7 May 1715.

One more minor criticism before I can begin to sing the praise of this valuable book: He used the identical abbreviation for "died" and for "daughter", a shortcut which causes a double-take on the part of the reader.

The format is straightforward enough, clear, comprehensive, well coded to the sources described in the Introduction. One would expect to use the book for looking up certain people and then replacing it on the shelf. But, on the contrary, I soon found myself reading (skimming) it straight through because of the informative remarks.

There's history to be found in this volume: men who died at Camp Ticonderoga in 1776, or "returning home from the army at Lake George, being one of Captain Bacon's Company" in 1756. John Everett Jr. was "one of the unfortunate passengers that perished at the burning of the Steamer Lexington on L.I. [Long Island?] Sound" in 1840. One man was buried at sea in the Indian Ocean; others died "at smallpox hospital". That disease must have been so prevalent that it required a separate hospital for quarantine purposes. Several men "died of blowing rocks on the turnpike"; were they using dynamite to build a new road?

Old newspapers might reveal some scandalous details to explain why 45-year-old Captain William E. was "shot dead while exercising his company" in 1802.

Descendants of Moses Fisher would be excited to learn that he was "slain in battle near Lake George, having enlisted under Captain Fales in the Crown Point Expedition. He was the First Sergeant in his company" in 1755.

Many deaths occurred "in the House of Corrections," "in the Poorhouse," or "in the factory." Later it was revealed that a 14-year-old girl died "in the cotton factory," and someone committed suicide by hanging at Silas Mason's hat factory. One entry locates "the Factory at the edge of Walpole."

The home towns of visitors who died in Dedham are frequently recorded, and status symbols such as "Esq.", "Deacon" and "Captain" are scrupulously ascribed to the deceased. On the other hand, a woman was referred to as "the wife of a debauched lawyer" - - - one wonders if the attorney sued for slander!

There is a six-page section of "Blacks -- Freemen, Slaves, Servants" and one of "Unidentified." The term "a child of color" is scattered throughout the book, which might be helpful to those researching Black Genealogy.

[An aside to anyone tracing the Hartshorn family: on page 108, four out of the nine entries have birth dates instead of death dates -- compare with Vol. 1.]

Among the unusual causes of death we noticed: a 30-year-old man died of "languishment" and a 6-year-old child of "mortification." Several people were, it seems, crushed by their own carts, and one poor lad was mortally wounded by the horn of the heifer he was leading. Young Abner Lewis's death was caused by fighting, the church record states, but Dr. Nathaniel Ames wrote in his diary that he was killed by the "fooling of boys."

One determined man "shot and hanged himself, both," and a "Crazy man -- died with fright." Several people "died comfortably," and a great many departed suddenly. Nearly as many died as the result of being "inoculated with smallpox" as of having the disease itself.

Other causes of death that sound odd to us now: hectic fever, lingering atrophy, lethargy, iliac passion, camp disorder, cyananche maligna, atrabilarian disorder [black bile or hypochondria?], inebriety, lithotomy, stoppage, palsy, strangury....

This reviewer recommends the book to those researching the Massachusetts Bay area, and hopes you all find many such interesting items about your families.

Volume 3, "Marriages 1638-1844", of this series of Dedham, Massachusetts vital records, is as neatly typed and efficiently arranged as the other two. In addition to the sources cited in Volumes 1 and 2, Mr. Hanson searched the "Chapter 84" returns, that is, records from other towns that were returned to the Dedham Town Clerk under the provisions of Chapter 84 of the Acts of 1857, representing a marriage in which at least one party was a Dedham resident. These towns were Dover, Medfield, Needham, Roxbury, Dorchester, Boston, Sherborn, Milton and Natick.

A valuable feature of this volume is a Key to Persons Performing Marriages, both in Civil Ceremonies (names dignified by Esq. or J.P.) and Church Ceremonies, wherein the tenure of each minister is shown in parentheses after his full name and code letters, under the church's name and present location.

Another bonus for the reader is a nearly 50-page index of brides with appropriate page numbers. [One wonders why Olive Wilkinson filed intentions to marry Henry Wilson of Roxbury on the 14th of March 1777, but wound up marrying Henry Watson of Roxbury on the 31st. Somebody's pen slipped!] Intentions were sometimes filed several months before the marriage. "Widow" or "Widower" is often indicated. If either party lived outside the Dedham township, that is usually noted.

There is a page of dates of apparently Black marriages, having given names only, followed by "(servant to ...)", which should be welcome news to some genealogists who have few sources to turn to.

This volume is as well prepared as the preceding two in the series, and is a splendid addition to the New England shelves of our libraries.
IN MEMORIAM: JULIA (TERRELL) BARRON

The Austin Genealogical Society has lost one of its co-founders, Mrs. William T. Barron. According to Mrs. David C. Gracy, the other co-founder, it was Mrs. Barron who first thought of having a genealogical society in Austin. She mentioned her idea to Mrs. Gracy who agreed that the idea should be explored and offered her home as a first meeting place. One afternoon in 1959 a number of interested persons met and discussed the plan. Austin Genealogical Society was thus born.

Mrs. Barron was the daughter of Edward Henry Terrell and his wife, Mary Selina Dailey. On 17 June 1923 she was married to William Thomas Barron Jr. who died on 15 July 1977. To this couple were born two daughters, Marydean Walden Barron who married Charles Motz, and Virginia Louise Barron who married Bruce P. Price. The Motz family live in New Braunfels and the Price family reside in Bartlesville, Oklahoma. Mrs. Barron is survived by these daughters and sons-in-law, by nine grandchildren, 17 great-grandchildren, two nephews and one niece.

Julia Terrell was educated in the San Marcos public schools and was a 1928 graduate of Southwest Texas State University, where she was a member of Theta Psi Delta, now Chi Omega sorority. She became a teacher of History, Spanish, and English. Her many memberships included Daughters of the Republic of Texas, Daughters of the American Revolution, Colonial Dames XVII Century, Daughters of the American Colonists, Audubon Society, Violet Crown Garden Club, Texas Fine Arts Association, Heritage Society, Retired Teachers Association, and the United Methodist Church. She was a co-organizer of Book Friends in Austin, and assisted in organizing the Corpus Christi Centennial Museum.

Mrs. Barron had lived in Austin, Corpus Christi, Beeville, Wimberley, and New Braunfels where she was living at the time of her death. Julia (Terrell) Barron died 23 February 1990 at the age of 90 in McKenna Memorial Hospital. She was buried in the San Marcos Cemetery.

PROLIFIC GENEALOGICAL WRITER HONORED

Honors are far from rare for Col. Ralph E. Pearson, USA Rtd., who was president of AGS 1963-64. Although he was "career army" for most of his life, writing has occupied almost as much of his time as soldiering.

He wrote for Tippecanoe High School news 1919-23, then went on to edit the ROTC annual at Fort Knox. He wrote a newspaper column, "Backward Glances," in his home town, Tipp City, Ohio, for some years. His columns and articles pertain largely to the reminiscences of pioneer settlers of the area, so when a new museum was opened in his home town recently, the curator requested copies of "everything you have written" on the subject -- some 800 pages!

From 1938 to the present, Colonel Pearson has produced a genealogical column called "Your Family and Mine" in various newspapers. He has compiled about 1500 family histories, including one on the Westlake family which the famous genealogical library of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints has requested permission to microfilm -- quite an honor.

Perhaps Colonel Pearson's magnum opus was The Scarritt Clan in America, the first section of which was published in 1938; it now encompasses three volumes. Few genealogical writers can boast such a vast quantity of published writings.

Congratulations, Colonel!
NEW BOOK NEWS

INTERESTING NEW TEXAS PUBLICATIONS

Our neighboring counterpart, Comal County Genealogy Society, has announced the publication of Comal County Cemetery Records Outside New Braunfels, the most recent in an impressive list of books they have produced. These include five books of Marriage Records, one of New Braunfels Cemeteries, two of Cemetery Sextons' Records, and an Index to Naturalization Records at Comal County Courthouse.

Since their letter was addressed to us at Texas State Library instead of to AGSQ Editor at 2202 W. 10, Austin TX 78703, it did not reach us in time for our March Quarterly. The letter states the new book was "coming in April" and gives a pre-publication price but not a deadline or a post-publication price. See their Family Footsteps magazine in Texas State Library for further information.

Or, address Comal County Genealogy Society, Box 310583, New Braunfels, Texas 78131-0583, for details.

RUSK COUNTY HISTORY TO BE PUBLISHED

Under the auspices of Rusk County Genealogical Society, the history of that county is being compiled for publication. This will include all towns (lively or ghostly), churches, schools, businesses, and so on. All residents and former residents are invited to submit family histories and photographs, after obtaining a free instruction brochure by calling (214) 657-4381, or writing to Rusk County History Book, 200 Choctaw Trail, Henderson TX 75652.

John R. Dulin, president of the Genealogical Society, has been named Project Director, and states that it will be "an attractive linen hardbound, library quality book constructed to last for generations to come."

Many who failed to send in their family histories to such a project have lived to regret it. Your editor has found the recent history of her home county (Gonzales) absolutely indispensable in interpreting her great-grandfather's papers. Indecipherable names become clear when one finds something similar in the list of attorneys or grocers or fellow church members in the county history. And, as might be expected, the family sketches reveal much genealogical data of value.

Supplement to DESHA Genealogy -- a Survey Forthcoming

Potential genealogical authors, take heart! Your book will almost certainly call forth additions and corrections! Those distant relatives who did not respond to your letters of inquiry will hasten to point out any errors in the data their cousin sent you about them. And others that you did not know existed will hear about your book and hasten to submit data about the twigs of their branch.
In September 1983 we reviewed DESHA Genealogy -- a Survey by former AGS president DeWitt C. Nogues. We found it an excellent book, a role model for other authors, but admitted to a slight annoyance at his manner of revealing gaps in his data thus: "b. (when) in (where) d. (when) in (where) -- (no information on marriage)", etc. [It stands to reason that if he had known, he would have given those dates and places, so it's a waste of space to fill a paper with such words and/or question marks.] We expressed our hope that all those when's and where's would be answered by the next edition, and apparently our wish has come true.

We are delighted to learn from the modest but proud Mr. Nogues that he has received so much additional information (371 pages so far!) that he will publish a Supplement later this year. But he assures us that there is STILL TIME to include more data, if contributors will send additions and corrections without delay to DeWitt at P.O. Box 58, Cedar Creek TX 78612.

We eagerly anticipate reviewing this invaluable supplement in the near future.

Editor's Note: Most of us have seen references to old books that pertain to the area where an elusive ancestor lived, but cannot find the book in our local libraries. Following is an opportunity to rectify that situation - or at least the possibility of getting such books reprinted at a fraction of the current cost of the originals. Send in your choices! You might get lucky. These are the publishers that give us books free for the reviewing. [Unsolicited adv.]

"THE LARGEST GRAPEVINE IN THE WORLD"

Among the pedigree charts appearing in this issue is one from Mrs. Shirley Brooks of Lake Elsinore CA. She wrote to our energetic board member, Glenda Knipstein, thanking her for assistance on her Swedish lines and enclosing a contribution to the Gray Golden Memorial Fund.

Also enclosed were copies of very interesting stories about a tremendous grapevine that once grew on the property of her ancestor John Regnald Peterson. Unfortunately, the story (Carpinteria As It Was by Jayne C. Caldwell was the principal source) is too long and the pictures too dim to reprint herein.

To synopsize: In 1842, in Santa Barbara County, California, Joaquina Lugó de Avala, the esposa of a presidio soldier, planted a cutting which became known as "La Vina Grande." In its prime, the vine's trunk measured over nine feet in circumference and covered 90 by 115 feet of ground. The arbor formed by the vines could shelter 800 people from the sun, so many political and social gatherings assembled under its branches. La Vina Grande bore ten tons of Mission variety grapes in 1895. After many memorable events had occurred beneath its verdant leaves, the vine finally died of old age in 1924.

Mr. and Mrs. John Peterson, who bought the property in 1904, named a daughter Ora Vineola in honor of this internationally known "wonder of the world." Promoters tried in vain to buy La Vina Grande to exhibit it in the Chicago World's Fair and in the Pan-American Exposition held at San Diego.

When it was learned that the British were claiming that "The World's Largest Grapevine" was in Hampton Court Gardens, the city council of Carpinteria passed a resolution setting forth the points on which La Vina Grande excelled the English one, and vice versa. A private individual from Carpinteria presented a copy of the document to the Chief Steward of Hampton Court Palace, Sir Rodney Moore, who graciously took her to view its famous vine. It was planted in 1768 and is still thriving, though not as large as the American one was.

Thanks to AGS members Shirley and Glenda for sharing this interesting anecdote with our readers.
NEW EDITORS

As you will notice on the facing page, our Happy Hunting Ground section has a new editor: Marilyn Gilbreath has kindly consented to relieve your obsolescent "managing editor" of this responsibility. Thus she can share with all our readers some of the queries and problems that she receives (and so graciously answers) as Corresponding Secretary of our society.

Keep those queries a-comin', friends, but send 'em to the new editor at 9218 Meadow Vale, Austin TX 78758 now!

Austin Genealogical Society is looking for another editor -- or perhaps a couple -- to write a section about Travis County and early Austin for each Quarterly. We have been criticized for not publishing more local material.

If you have a truly "inquiring mind" -- that is, a desire to learn all the truth, not just salacious gossip -- and a passion for accurate reporting, this is for YOU!

The gracious staff at Austin History Center (810 Guadalupe, the former Central Library) would be glad to help you find material. Perhaps you might like to do a series on the small towns in Travis County (Del Valle, McNeil, Manchaca, Manor, Pflugerville, etc.) including sketches of the families they were named for. Or, from old city directories, lists of Attorneys, Bankers, City and County Officials, Doctors and Dentists, Hotel Keepers, Merchants, Saloon Proprietors, etc.

Old newspapers are an inexhaustible source of interesting personal items, of course. And for straight statistical material, one can research in the Travis County courthouse.

In our next issue will be a listing of the major subjects that have already been published in AGS Quarterly.

So please VOLUNTEER yourself or SUGGEST others for this interesting and important position. Write your managing editor (2202 W. 10th St., Austin TX 78703) or call (477-7313 between 8 a.m. and 7 p.m.) without delay so we can get this valuable feature established in celebration of the 30th year of the existence of the Austin Genealogical Society.

LEE. Would like to prove or disprove possible "tall tale" told about a family member. One person who related the story is 80 years old; another says she heard the same thing from a tour guide on a tour bus in Austin. JAMES WESLEY LEE (b. 1 Nov 1875 in CO), as the story goes, was a gambler at one time in his life around the area that is now Austin. He won at a poker game and was given deeds to nearby land as payment. LEE didn't want to be encumbered with property, so he traded it all for a silver saddle and spurs. As it turned out, the deeds would have covered land that is now Austin. LEE later moved to Oregon. This information may be totally faulty, but I would appreciate any assistance in checking it out. -- Jo Perry, 4609 S. Coors Court, Morrison, CO 80465.
EARLY RYLAND GENEALOGY

(Or, Those Migrating Ryland’s of Virginia)

The following letter was passed to me recently from my 1st Cousin, James Robert Ryland, Jr. of St. Louis, MO. I, and others have been assisting him in compiling the descendants of our immigrant ancestor Joseph Ryland and his 3rd spouse, Elizabeth Ferguson of K & Q Co., VA. The author John E(dwin) Ryland is my maternal 2nd Cousin twice removed. This may help answer some who ask ‘Where did you get all of your data?’ In our family it is a labor of love.

JOHN E. RYLAND

LEXINGTON, MO.

Herndon,

You will find this manuscript somewhat like Melchizidic, without beginning but not without end. Tackle it sometime when you can’t sell a bill of lumber or do some other good end, and if you grow tired, lay it aside for a more convenient season: but all the time blame yourself for starting me, and like many another old person, when started I did not know when to quit. I sometimes remind myself of a story I used to hear told on a friend of mine named "Weedin". He was a pious boy from the country, and went to Danville College, Kentucky along with Senator Best and Judge John F. Phillips of our state, two wild, mischievous town boys. These two used to attend the prayer meetings along with "Weedin" to hear him pray, for they said that he was like a stern-wheel steamboat, it took him a long time to make a landing. So with me, it is hard to make a landing. Give my love to my Cousins Priscilla Bet. and those with her on 45th St., and send my sympathy and fond love to Cousin Ann (I only used the title your uncle Josiah gave her) Dora and those near or with her. I am sure there is one near who will never leave nor forsake her, and who sticketh closer than a brother. Remember me also to Robert Ryland Sizer and his household. He called to see me at the hospital once; but his visit was too short for me to form an opinion of him.

I hope it may be said of him and of you all, as good old St. John wrote to his friend Gains, "That thou mayest prosper and be in health even as thy soul prospereth". Give my best love to your sweet sisters and good brothers and fair cousins, wherever and whenever you may see or greet them. There is now only one hope left me of seeing them and you, and that is as an anchor to my soul. I hope to meet you in the land of light and life and love; and I am happy in the thought that this hope shall end in full fruition by and by.

Be faithful to the grace given unto you. Love not the world nor the things of the world too much; but make this world with all its successes and failings, and its joys and sorrows, all its sunshine and shadows a means of grace by which to please God. Serve your day and generation so that when called to join that happy redeemed Company among whom are so many we loved and love, we shall be ready; as an old friend and brother once said to me, "have nothing to do but to die".

Goodbye, God bless you in all good words and works and give you his loving favor all the while, which is better than life. This leaves me in usual health, gradually growing older and feeble. My family too are well and would give you an ardent greeting.

Your cousin,
John E. Ryland.

Lexington, Mo. April 18, 1904.

This is my wife's birthday born in Halifax Co. Virginia. April 18, 1835.

P.S. I have not intentionally made any mistakes, but rather wish I have another something that will cause you to write to inquire about --- (last word was off the page). I will submit what I have written with the mask E.& O.E. as the ---- (the rest I can't read.)
April 10, 1904.

JOHN E. RYLAND

LEXINGTON, MO.

For Herndon Sizer, of New York City.

Family Tree of John Ferguson Ryland of Missouri

1st Thomas Ryland and Mary Ryland, both of England.

2nd Joseph Ryland, born November 19th, 1716, Died May 19th, 1772. Was married twice, and my information is his first wife’s Christian name was Elizabeth, but surname not known. In an old Common Prayer Book given to me by someone, whom I visited in Old Virginia in 1871, I found the following record written on a blank page, a part of which was torn off, viz: "Oct. 8th, 1781".

1 Thos. Ryland, son of Joseph and Elizabeth Ryland, was born June 8th, 1744.

2 Betty Ryland, daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth Ryland, was born February 24th, 1747.

Elizabeth Ryland, wife of Joseph Ryland, departed this life the 14th day of June in the year of our Lord 1750.

Then on another page of this same old Prayer Book, I find this record, viz:

"Josiah Ryland, son of Joseph and Elizabeth was born March 5th, 1767."

From this I judge our ancestor Joseph Ryland had two wives named Elizabeth. The one we descended from was Elizabeth Ferguson, who was born Feby 19th, 1732 and died Oct. 19th, 1805. The record that Cousin Charles H. Ryland has makes the first wife’s name "Mary Dudley". He mentions no children born of that marriage. I have a record of them, a son not named, Thomas and Betty; but let me begin my "Tree" anew:

Joseph Ryland, born Nov. 19, 1716, died May 19, 1772.

Their children were:

1. Josiah Ryland, born March 25th, 1767 (your grt-grandfather)
2. Joseph Ryland, born Oct 8th, 1768, died Aug 7th 1811 (my Grandfather)
3. Joanna Ryland, born June 14th, 1770, died Nov. 20, 1837.

Joseph Ryland my grandfather, the brother of your great-grandfather, married Rosanna Motley, and he and his sister Joanna moved out to Kentucky in the year 1810, and settled in Marion County, where he died in Aug. 1811 leaving a widow and seven children, namely: 1) Catharine, 2) John Ferguson, 3) James, 4) Edwin Motley, 5) Elizabeth Ferguson, 6) Nancy, 7) Joanna.

Joanna Ryland, who came west with my grandfather Joseph Ryland, married Jacob Todhunter (his second wife) and died without children.

Catharine Ryland married Parker E. Todhunter, (son of Jacob by his first wife) and had a number of children, all of whom are dead but two, viz: Jacob Ferguson Todhunter, born Feb 20th, 1820, a mute, single, living in Lexington, Mo., and Ryland Todhunter, Feb 10th, 1840. Married and have one son and three daughters living in Lexington, Mo.

John Ferguson Ryland (my father) married twice: first wife was Martha M. Barnett, by whom he had six children, viz: 1) Juliet Virginia, born July 10, 1822, married James Findley and had a number of children, all of whom are dead but one, (James William Findley living in San Jose, California). She is a widow and lives with me. 2) Joseph Erasmus Ryland died in infancy; 3) Caius Tacitus Ryland born June 30, 1826, died Dec. 5, 1897, married Letitia M. Barnett, and had a number of children of whom are now living, namely: 1) Ada Ryland, single; 2) John Wallace Ryland, single; 3) Norma Ryland, single; 4) Joseph Robert Ryland, married and have two sons (Reese and Caius Tacitus); 5) Hermit, married Joseph Isby, and have children; 6) Charles B. Ryland, married, but have no children; 7) Caius Tacitus Ryland Jr., married, but no children; 8) Dwight Edwin Ryland, single. My brother's family were raised and most of them now live in or near San Jose, California. 4) Martha Clintona Ryland (my sister) born June 20th, 1828, died May 27, 1852. Married Dr. A. B. Earl, died leaving no children. 5) John Edwin Ryland (self) born July 8th, 1830. Married Nancy Pettice Palmer (a Virginia girl). The best that can be found. She still lives to bless me and others, as only a good wife, mother and friend can. We had born to us seven children, viz: 1) Isaac Palmer Ryland; 2) Martha Clinton a Ryland; 3) Edwin Pigott Ryland; 4) Benj. Emmett Ryland (died in infancy); 5) Lillian Ryland; 6) Caius Tacitus Ryland; 7) John Reid Ryland. James William Ryland (my brother) born Aug. 14, 1832, died July 1833. John F. Ryland's (my father) second wife was Elizabeth Gabriella Buford, born in 1816 and died in 1884, by whom he had twelve children, eight of whom are yet living. The sons are 1) Simon Buford Ryland, widower, who married and has two sons living; 2) Ligrand G. Ryland; 3) Buford Ryland. Ligrand has one son Frank Ryland; 2) Xenophon Ryland, widower, has two sons; 1) Richard Ford Ryland and 2) Leonard Gambel Ryland; 3) Manuelle Cass Ryland, married, and has one son John Samuel Ryland; 4) Joseph Addison Ryland, now deceased leaving one son Corydon Ryland; 5) Richard Stede, died in infancy. My half sisters and all of the married ones, except one who is now a widow, and children have large families and grandchildren, and one of them has a great-grand-child. The girls of our family out west marry young and generally have children.

ISAAC PALMER RYLAND my oldest was born Oct. 6, 1861, and married Bessie Knickerbocker, April 15th, 1886. To them were born 1) John Edwin Ryland, Sept. 12th, 1887; 2) Louise Ryland, Dec. 20th, 1888; 3) Jeannett Palmer Ryland, August 27th, 1890; 4) Robert Knickerbocker Ryland, Dec. 21st, 1894. Issac is a lawyer and living in Kansas City, Mo.

MARTHA CLINTONA RYLAND born Aug. 24th, 1864. Married Dr. Hector H. Griswold, June 22nd, 1887. To them were born 1) Palmer Ryland Griswold, a daughter) born Nov. 27th, 1888; 2) Doris Griswold born April 2nd, 1891; 3) Hector Clinton Griswold, born January 3rd, 1894; 4) Bernice Pettice Griswold, born January 14th, 1896 and 5) Lillian Griswold, born Aug. 5th, 1897. Dr. Griswold is a dentist and lives in Salt Lake City, Utah.

EDWIN PIGOTT RYLAND was born October 23rd, 1866, was married to Lila Gorden Oct. 14th, 1891. To them the following children have been born: 1) Juliet Virginia Ryland, born Nov. 10th, 1892; 2) Victor Gordan Ryland born Aug. 9th, 1894, and 3) Mary Pettice Ryland born Aug. 11th, 1897. Edwin is a Methodist Preacher, and now lives in Los Angeles, Cal. His health rather gave way a few years ago, and upon the advice of his physician he transferred first to Texas and was stationed at El Paso for near two years, and then went to Los Angeles, where he has been for nearly two years; however he is a full blooded Missourian, and if spared a few years longer so that his health may be fully returned, he intends to return to Missouri.

LILLIAN RYLAND was born May 14th, 1872, was married to Mr. F. Lee Wallace, Nov. 7th, 1900, no children. They live here in Lexington, have their own home and seem to be and I believe are happy.

CAIUS TACITUS RYLAND was born April 20th, 1874. Married Betty Belle Perry, Sept. 2nd, 1903. He is a physician and lives with us in Lexington. Is growing in favor with the people as a doctor, as he had as a young man.

JOHN REID RYLAND was born May 30, 1877. Is a commercial Traveler, selling shoes to the people away down South in Dixie. His Territory is southern Alabama, used to travel in Florida too, where he met either Hugh or Harry Lee Ryland, not married; but says he expects to be, that he has found the sweetest girl in all the world living in Dothan, Alabama.

My father's brother (Edwin M. Ryland) was twice married. By his first wife he had several sons to grow to manhood, but never married and all of them died without issue. He had no children by his last wife (that family is extinct).

Father's brother James Ryland, married and had one son, Joseph Ryland. Uncle James lived in Missouri for many years, but after the close of the War of Rebellion, he moved to Texas, where he died. His son Joseph I have heard went west and settled in Oregon. I don't know what became of him afterwards as I have lost sight and trace of him. (and I expect that family to be extinct also).

Father's sister Elizabeth Ferguson married Joseph Barnett (my mother's brother). He and Father swapped sisters. Aunt Betsy as she was called had a number of children, all of whom are dead save two widowed daughters, who now live in Lexington, Mo., and have sons and daughters. They married men named "Young".

Father's sister Nancy married a man bearing the unusual name of "John Smith" and died leaving only one child named Mary, who married a Mr. White. She is a widow and lives somewhere in Illinois; and as far as I know childless.

Father's other sister Joanna married a Mr. Irwin, and they had several children; but I know nothing of them or of their dwelling place. They too once lived in Missouri, but years ago they moved south, and I have lost all trace of them.

Then you see but for my father's inheriting the nature of his Virginia relatives, and like them married, and then helped to people the earth, our branch of the family and the name of Ryland would have perished out west. I must not omit to tell you that after my grandfather Joseph Ryland died his widow Rosanna married my grandfather Joseph Barnett (mother's father) and they too had the following named children: 1) Isaac Newton Barnett; 2) Caroline Barnett, who married one Logan O. Young; 3) Juliet Barnett, who married Baset Wilson and 4) Rosanna Barnett who married one Robert Woodson. Uncle Woodson had a brother named Samuel. These boys were near the same age and were called "Sam & Bob". When they started to school the teacher asked Sam the elder his name, he answered Samuel. This was new to Bob, he had never heard him called by that name, and thought Sam referred to his health, so when the teacher asked him for his name, he answered "Bobu well--I am well too". They are all dead and only the Young's left any issue, and they live in Missouri and eastern Kansas, and are well-to-do, good people, and all are Methodists but one, a Campbellite, I believe.

I believe I have finished the record and would not have given it to anyone but to you or some of the other kinsmen, that I loved. I shall not forget your kindness in May 1895, when you accompanied me across the Hudson to Jersey City, and saw me safely aboard a train bound west.
It was Monday May 27th 1895, I also remember Robert K. he and you called to see me at the Polyclinic Hospital on 34th St. several times. I had seen his father Mr. S. and grandfather Robert in Lexington, Ky. in 1874. I also know well two uncles of his mother, Col. Quinn Morton and John S. Morton. There is now living and preaching in our country a young Presbyterian minister named Ch. H. Morton, a cousin of his mother's. Also tell him that I have hanging in my room the likeness of my father, my sister Clinton and of myself, painted by his uncle John S. Morton, and I wish we had my father's to improve on as I am sure we could, though it is a good likeness of my father, who was a clean-shaven well-dressed old-time gentleman. Also tell him that we too have a Robert K. Ryland in our family, a bright 10-year-old boy, a Knickerbocker. Wish the two R. K.'s could meet; they would admire each other I am sure.

Some years ago one John Wm. Ryland of Rowington in Birmingham Co. England sent us a pedigree of self, showing his decent from Thomas and Mary Ryland. Mary's maiden name was Llewellen of Wellington Co. and her father was first cousin of Sir Robt. Peel. He also sent me a copy of the Ryland Coat of Arms, which is now in the possession of my daughter Lillian Wallace, and as she is an artist (not celebrated however) she will make a sketch of it, which I will enclose to you. I fear she has mislaid the same and cannot find it. She will look and if found will sketch it for you. It is different from the one you have on the little book.

Now see what you have made me do. I hope you will be able to unravel the record and understand it and will not get befuddled as my folks do, when I begin to tell them of Josiah the son of Joseph the son of Josiah, the son of Thos. & C.. It is easy for me for I saw them and loved and love them. Wish you could see John E. the son of I. P., the son of J. E., the son of John F., the son of Joseph, the son of Joseph, the son of Thos. That is the tie that binds my grandson to you, who is the son of Betty, the daughter of Sam P., the son of Josiah, the son of Joseph, the son of Thomas who had lived and died in England and who has descendants numerous now living in the old country.
This has been transcribed from a Xerox copy of the original letter now in the possession of Mr. Sturgis Warner who married Hilda Foster Sizer (67, P 3). I have both the Xerox copy of the original and an early typed transcription which I have checked against the original. There have been some corrections to the typed transcription. There is a second letter from John E. Ryland to Herndon Sizer dated May 11, 1904, which I have been unable to transcribe as the handwriting is very difficult to read. For anyone desiring a copy of the second letter, I will be glad to make a Xerox copy and send to them upon request.

J. R. Ryland.

What To Do When Wife's Maiden Name Is Unknown

It has been noticed that some of the charts submitted for our Ancestor Listing Section show the wife with the same surname as the husband. That means that they had the same surname before they were married. Not extremely unusual, but when a chart shows several such cases, one wonders if there really were that many cousin marriages in a short time span.

The accurate way to show that you don't know the wife's maiden name is to enter her given names only, leaving space to fill in the surname when it is learned. But that makes a problem in indexing, especially baffling to a computer, so one reasonable solution is to insert three periods within parentheses (... ) between her given name(s) and her married surname.

If you have a way of treating this problem that works well for you, please let your editor know so we can share the information.

I am glad to see that only four or five charts submitted for our Ancestor Listing Section have obsolete state abbreviations on them, and only a narrative article used a cumbersome old style of dating! It was written long ago.

Much of the following material is taken from THE DODGEN STORY by Mary Dodgen Few (SC: Southern Historical Press, 1985) and presented by Juanita Dodgen. 1008 Stewart Cove, Austin, TX 78734. Anyone seeking further material on any Dodgen/Dodgin/Dodglen family may contact Juanita Dodgen at 1-512-266-3414.

Eli Washington Dodgen (1831-1899) was the first Dodgen in Texas. He came from Georgia by way of Arkansas with his wife Mary Seleta Farmer and four children, settling in Washington County, Texas in 1866. The children were Victoria Elizabeth and Christiana Narcissus, both born in Georgia, and Joseph Caswell and George Fayette, both born in Arkansas.

Eli Washington seems an inveterate wanderer, always restless, forever seeking a seemingly unattainable goal. Like a firefly beating out its life against a lighted globe, he flitted through Washington, Fayette, Bastrop, Lee and Blanco Counties from 1866 until he came to his final rest in Bell County in 1899.

Mary Seleta Farmer Dodgen died in Fayette County at 35 years of age sometime after September 21, 1874, when she appeared on the 1870 census records of Washington County. Married at 16, Mary Seleta Dodgen's life was apparently hard and troubled. She was the mother of two children at age 20. Before she was 25, she had traveled the arduous route from civilized Georgia to the wilds, both physical and political, of Arkansas, where a third and fourth child were born before she was 23. Came the hardships and horrors of civil war in a strange country where she fended for four children while Eli Washington was away fighting. (Eli Washington enlisted at Camp Etter near Mount Vernon in Lawrence County, Missouri, not far from the Arkansas state line. He served with Company C of the 4th Arkansas Regiment, progressing from private to 2nd Lieutenant.) Toil, rootlessness, chaos, and more children continued to be her lot as the war closed and the Eli Washington Dodgens cast their lot in yet another strange land—the vast and little known Lone Star territory. Four years, and two children later, just after Texas ratified the 14th and 15th Amendments and was readmitted to the Union, Mary Seleta Dodgen died. Her epitaph should be that of many a pioneer—she came, she saw, she could not stay to conquer.

Eli Washington Dodgen, still on the move, found a substitute mother for his large family in Bastrop County. In May of 1871.
less than eight months after Marv Seleta’s untimely death, Eli Washington and Miranda Peirson were married. Adding Miranda’s two children to Eli Washington’s seven must have made a sizeable wagon train on their next move into Blanco County on March 4, 1876, when Eli Washington Dodgen later secured a homestead grant of 160 acres in 1879. A second Dodgen family was in the making, with the arrival of Charles Addison to Eli and Miranda in 1876, when they paused in Burnet County momentarily for his birthing. In all his ramblings, the 160-acre homestead in Blanco County, Texas, is Eli Washington’s only recorded land ownership that has been found. Descendants of Eli Washington still live in the hill country, many of them in Blanco County.

Eli was a "messenger" of the First Baptist Church of Johnson City in 1881, 1883 and 1884. (perhaps he DID find what he was seeking) and his son Joseph Caswell became the pastor of the church in 1897 and served until 1899. (See A PILGRIMAGE: The First One Hundred Years of First Baptist Church, Johnson City Texas!1879-1979. Published privately by a committee of church members which included descendants of Eli Washington Dodgen.)

Eli Washington Dodgen died in 1899 at the home of his son, Charles Addison, in Temple, Bell County, Texas. Thirty-four years had passed, but Eli Washington’s memory was long and bitter. Only "Comrades who wore the gray" were invited to bid him farewell at City Cemetery, Temple, Texas on April 8, 1899. His monument, marked simply, Mr Dodgen, stands in a section designated as the Confederate Block.

Eli Washington and Marv Seleta Farmer were the parents of seven children:

Biedermann of Giromagny, Territory of Belfort. In the year he has developed the Wolff line which are no additions at this tire to an Umhau/Schaffert line but a query in the Falilienkundliche Hachrichten bulletin of Cmle Genealosisue d'Alsace, which was brought to my attention by his line on his taother's side as well as to Dr. Albert Schweitzer's line almost two centuries back. There response before I had received my copy from France.

This summer may bring similar results.

Friedrich Koehler and his wife, Mary Lauer, were both born in the town of Neustadt, Tafel Fichte, in the northern extremity of Bohemia, then part of the Austrian Empire. From records furnished me by the Czechoslovak Embassy in Washington I have determined their respective parents' and grandparents' names to be as shown on the pedigree chart on the facing page, all of whom resided in and presumably died in Neustadt. Friedrich Koehler immigrated to Lavaca County, Texas in 1871 through the port of New Orleans. Mary followed him several months later, also through New Orleans, and they were married in Lavaca County on 31 March 1872. They purchased a 106-acre farm three miles east of the town of Moravia in northern Lavaca County in 1888, where they lived until retiring in Schulenburg, Texas in 1920. They had five daughters and five sons, the youngest of whom was my father, William Frank, born 19 April 1890. The other sons' names were Joseph, Adolph, Fritz and Henry; the daughters were named Mary, Antonia, Annie, Ida and Lena. Friedrich Koehler was naturalized in 1894. He died in Schulenburg in 1923. Mary died in 1929, and both are buried in the Schulenburg City Cemetery.

In addition to any further information concerning the Köhler and Lauer lines, I would be interested in establishing relationships to the Schwertner, Vielkind, Fischer, Legler, Veit and Veters families with ties to the area of northern Bohemia.

THE SOCIETY OF THE CINCINNATI
Sometime in 1970, there lived in Austin, TX, a lady named Daisy Barrett Tanner (at home, 906 W. 23rd St., 78705). She wrote an article on "The Hunt Family", and it was typed by a man named Grady Parrish, 511 E. Lake Drive, Gladewater, TX 75647. In this article, she wrote an almost complete summary of MY ancestors! There were a number of other descendants, as well, but she traced MY line. I sure wish I knew where Ms. Tanner was today, or even Mr. Parrish, because they probably could finish out my line into the early 1600's!

Since I would like for you readers to participate (as much as possible) in my hunt for Hunts, I will use information from her article extensively, and will add more only when I feel it would be of interest and assistance.

A list of the Colonial Militia of Granville Co. (NC) made on Oct. 3, 1754 contains the name of Thomas Hunt, Little Creek...the ancestor of this writer. Who HIS ancestors were is not yet known, but there is probably a connection between him and the early Hunts who lived in the Counties of Isle of Wight and (or) Charles City in Virginia (Other VA Counties later).

The Hunts repeated personal names over and over. In old Bertie Co. (NC) Tax Lists in 1771 there were those Hunts: Thomas, James, George, Hardy, Henry, Henry, Nathaniel. (The identical names were in Bute Co.). It is in the Bute Co. Tax Lists where MY ancestors are found -- Thomas Hunt of Little Creek and his son Henry. (Henry Hunt's deed for 640 acres on Little Creek was registered in 1779).

A deed dated 8 Feb 1789 for 280a at 120$ (Buyer, Wilson Denson) lists the sale of some of Thomas Hunt's land, and identifies some of his heirs. The names on the deed were: Henry/Ann Hunt, Hardy/Sarah Hunt, William/Ruth Babb, Jesse/Lucretia Webb, Mourning Taylor (Wife of John Taylor, according to reports on Thomas Hunt's will). An additional researcher (in 1979) who had a copy of the will was Ms. Hugh S. Barger, 2525 Bellemeade Ave., in Evansville, IN. Note: The deed was witnessed by a Sinn Hunt, relation unknown.

All of the Hunt's names printed in the Revolutionary War Official Poster were: Memucan Hunt Oneuphones Hunt Daniel Hunt
Berry Hunt John Hunt (5-6 Times) Elijah Hunt
David Hunt (Planter) Elisha Hunt
Jesse Hunt (Captain) Charles Hunt
William Hunt (Major)

There was no Henry Hunt, yet he received a payment from Revolutionary War funds in the Halifax District, NC, for 120$. It is possible he was a Chaplain, since he was "Rev. Henry Hunt".

My ancestor Thomas Hunt presumably had a son John, even though he was not included in his will. A John Hunt was exceedingly prominent in Franklin Co. NC in the late 1790's and early 1800's, especially dealing with the "Franklin Academy" in Louisburg, NC. This John Hunt had an equally prominent son, Nathaniel Macon Hunt. There may also have been a relationship between Thomas/Henry/John and the well-known Memucan Hunt of TN/ TX.
As did so many adventurous settlers of the time, Rev. Henry Hunt, his Bro.
Hardy, and their families, all moved westward into Tennessee in the early 1900's. They settled first in Sumner/Wilson Co., but competition for land was keen in that area. Rev. Henry Hunt died in the area, in 1825. He and his family kept good Bible records of the group, and reasonable records are available for his sons Ellery Hardy (my ancestor), Jesse, Benjamin. The Austin descendant (Ms. Tanner, named earlier) is descended from Henry's daughter Tabitha. The unique ancestor of the researchers (Ms. Barger) in Evansville, IN was Hardy Hunt, brother of Rev. Henry Hunt, through his daughter Penelope (Grimsley).

As West Tennessee was being settled, and there was peace with the Indians, Ellery Hardy Hunt and his family moved on westward (probably some others of the family, as well). About 1820, settlement was established in Gibson Co. TN, in the area surrounding the newly formed church (Eldad Baptist).
In fact, Hardy Hunt was one of the five founders of the new church, and gave the acreage on which it was eventually built. Another early settler, W. W. McHaney, later gave the land for the historic Eldad Cemetery, behind the church. One of the church founders was Patience Boone, sister of the Kentuckian Daniel Boone.

Hardy Hunt reared his family in close association with the Jacob/Wyatt Bass families, especially Wyatt's son J. J. Bass (think JJ = Joseph John). In Sep. 1860, Hardy Hunt died, and his will divided his lands between his heirs. It is probable that some of his descendants are still living on some of the Hardy Hunt inheritance of 1860. It was not uncommon for the Hunt/Bass "cousins" to intermarry, and there are instances of husband and wife being "double first cousins". The Eldad Cemetery is full of Hunts, Basses, McHaney's, and several surnames of men who married Hunt/Bass wives.
Some of these are Cannon, Massey, Stephens, and, (from McHaney), Redberry.
There are, of course, many more names in the cemetery, for it was "free" for the use of anyone, until recently.

That's enough for MY Hunt background. What I would like to do is establish the link between my Thomas Hunt and the earlier Hunts of Virginia, if that is indeed possible (it is probable). Who was Thomas Hunt of Little Creek's father? I know there are many Hunt descendants who probably have already traced this line, but I don't have the records as yet.

For the rest of this submission, I will list the Hunt descendants that are included in both my research and that of Ms. Tanner and Ms. Barger (their notes), along with their spouses, if possible, to include surname changes.
This is just in case someone has one in common with us, and has done extra research.

I won’t burden you with further lists of Hunt names. Since Texas was the next frontier to be opened (in the mid-1820’s), several of the Hunt members of the families above moved there. There were Hunts in Hallsville and Olney, TX. There were probably many more from earlier migrations.

Would it be possible for the following ad to be put in your next newsletter and/or placed on an appropriate bulletin board seen by genealogical researchers?

THE HUGUENOT SOCIETY OF TEXAS

Twenty-one Presidents of the United States had French Protestant (Huguenot) ancestors. In 1685 the Revocation of The Edict of Nantes by King Louis XIV resulted in the expulsion of Huguenots from France. Many hundreds fled to America. Forty-five States have Chapters in this prestigious historical lineage organization. Do you have a Huguenot ancestor?

PURPOSE: Austin Genealogical Society was organized in 1960 as a non-profit corporation chartered by the State of Texas. Its purposes are to collect and preserve genealogical and historical information about the people of Texas, particularly pertaining to the City of Austin and to Travis and surrounding counties; to instruct and assist members in genealogical research; and to publish public and private records of genealogical interest. Gifts and bequests to AGS are tax-deductible.

MEMBERSHIP is open to all upon payment of annual dues: $12 per individual, or family membership at $14 for two in same household, entitling them to one copy of each Quarterly and Newsletter, as well as two pages apiece (a total of four pages for $14 whether one or two persons submit listings) in the Ancestor Listing Issue (June).

DUES ARE PAYABLE on or before JANUARY FIRST for the ensuing year. If dues are not received by February First, the name must be dropped from mailing list. If membership is reinstated later and quarterlies & newsletters have to be mailed individually, postage must be charged. (Back quarterlies supplied IF available - very few extras are printed. Send payments to AGS Treasurer, Box 1507, Austin TX 78767-1507.

MISSING COPIES. If your Quarterly does not reach you by the 10th of April, July, October or December, notify the Society at Box 1507, Austin TX 78767-1507 (but Exchange Quarterly Chairmen should use TEXAS STATE LIBRARY address given on inside front cover). Members who fail to give AGS sufficient advance notice of address changes will be responsible for the postal fee for returned copies and for remailing the copy at individual rather than bulk mailing rates.

MEETINGS of the general membership begin at 7:30 p.m. on the fourth Tuesday of each month except August and December. HOWEVER, members are encouraged to come at 6:30 to socialize with each other. The Board of Directors meets at 6:30 in a separate room. MEETING PLACE: Room 12, First Baptist Church, 901 Trinity. Enter on the east side - Neches Street. Free parking in the lot south of the church, 9th & Trinity. VISITORS ARE WELCOME.

AGS QUARTERLY is issued about the middle of March, June, September and November. Contributions are welcome, subject to editing to conform to our style. Contributor is responsible for accuracy and any copyright infringement. Send directly to Editor.

BOOK REVIEW POLICY. Books cannot be reviewed in AGSQ on the basis of advertising alone. If a Review Copy is received by the Editor at 2202 W. 10, Austin TX 78703 by the First of February, May, August or October, it will be reviewed in the next Quarterly (provided it is on an appropriate subject). It will then be placed in the Genealogy Collection of Texas State Library, available to all patrons.

ANCESTOR LISTING PAGES must reach Editor at above address by the TENTH OF MAY. They must be BLACK and LEGIBLE, whether typed, hand-printed, computer printout, or in superior calligraphy. Months must be SPELLED or abbreviated, NOT figures. Preferred form for dates: day, month, year. Allow space for binding at inner margins of facing pages; i.e., your first page will be a left-hand page. Carefully check horizontal pages (reading in the 11-inch direction). Otherwise, the Editor has to position some upside down to prevent loss of data in the punching-stapling process. NO 8½x14 sheets!

You may submit Lineage or Family Group charts, Ahnentafel, narratives, cemetery inscriptions, Bible records, census data, queries, or a combination of forms, just so it is not under copyright. Be sure to proofread your material for accuracy and clarity so we won't be guilty of disseminating faulty data. Put name & address on each page in legible form (NOT blind embossed). Consult a recent issue of AGSQ for suggestions.

REMEMBER: $12 membership entitles you to two facing pages in Ancestor Issue; $14 membership (one person or two) gives you four facing pages.

DEADLINES for everything except book reviews: 10th of February, May, August and October. Material sent to AGS P.O. box may or may not reach Editor in time.
