Digging Up the Bones of Our Ancestral Homes
Researching and keeping records of the houses our ancestors lived in can be illuminating. We will look at a variety of “excavation tools” for this task: city directories, maps, land grants, deeds, lot registers, architectural archives, property and tax records, historical photographs, and more. Locally, many of these resources are available at the Austin History Center, and some - like the Sanborn Fire Insurance Maps - are online.

Presented by AGS Member Phoebe Allen

As a self-proclaimed “Austin History Detective,” Phoebe Allen researches the histories of Texas houses, ranches and commercial buildings for nomination as historic landmarks. A 24-year veteran Montessori teacher, she served as chair of the national association of elementary Montessori teachers from 2005-2009. She created an educational program for groundwater conservation districts. She holds a degree in English from UT, and AMI Montessori certification from Bergamo, Italy. Phoebe has been the keeper of her family tree since she was a teenager. Her most recent project involved the creation of a video presentation about the Ghosts of Judges Hill in conjunction with Preservation Austin for Austin ISD. A trailer and the five “chapters” can be seen on Preservation Austin’s Vimeo page (vimeo.com/101568188.)

AGS Seminar with Judy Russell
May 30, 2015

Registration is open for our seminar!
Our April meeting will be the last opportunity to pay in person for this event and still get the member discount. You may also use the registration form in this newsletter to send a check by mail, or you can register with a credit card or Paypal on our website: www.austintxgensoc.org/seminar.

The seminar committee is looking forward to a great event and we hope to see you there!

To quote Geoff Rasmussen of Legacy Family Tree: “Your attendees are in for the time of their lives with Judy Russell.”

FROM THE PRESIDENT’S CORNER

What a great meeting we had in March! Teri Flack gave us a wonderful presentation on research strategies and she did it in a very entertaining and illustrative way. It is always a pleasure to hear her speak. Thank you, Teri!

We tried something new in March during the social time prior to the meeting by having a committee table. Our hope is to have a least one committee represented each meeting so that you can feel free to give input, find out what’s going on, or get involved in some way. We had our Education Committee represented in March by Jane Schwendinger and she received some great feedback and ideas for future educational programs for our members. Now she is hard at work making it happen!

This month we will be featuring our Publications Committee. Robin Raben will be available to answer questions, show how you can get involved, and take your ideas! Be sure to stop by and say “Hi” to Robin at the April Committee table.

Also coming up very quickly is our seminar with Judy G. Russell, The Legal Genealogist, on May 30. There is more information in this newsletter about the event. I do want to highlight a great post Judy had on her blog the other day. Which edition of Black’s Law Dictionary is the best for genealogy? Judy answers that question and tells you how to get it without spending a few hundred dollars. Go check it out here: www.legalgenealogist.com/blog/2015/03/24/which-blacks/

As we move into April, not only are the wild flowers blooming, but so is our Society. We will be celebrating the 55th birthday of AGS this month! It is a wonderful milestone and we are very lucky to have had such wonderful members that have kept us going all these years. Our members are what make our society so special.

Speaking of members, our own Phoebe Allen will be presenting this month’s program, Digging Up the Bones of our Ancestral Homes. Come join us for some idea sharing, celebration, and to hear a great program. I look forward to seeing you!

Anne Mamiya

We Remember Dorothy Blanche
AGS extends its condolences to her family and friends.

Dorothy Blanche Williams, age 92, passed away peacefully on Saturday, March 14, 2015, surrounded by her loving family and Pastor Ray and Susan Waugh of Walnut Creek Baptist Church, of which she was a faithful member for 22 years. She was born November 19, 1922 in Elk City, Oklahoma, to the late William Elton and Georgia Ann Neighbors.

Dorothy retired from Alcoa Aluminum, Point Comfort, in January 1985. Dorothy was preceded in death by her husband, Robert Will Williams; parents, William Elton and Georgia Ann Neighbors; brothers, J.D, Orval and Bob Neighbors; sister, Faira Mae Hoskins; son-in-law, Arthur Hunter; and grandson Randy Hunter.

She is survived by her daughters, Bobbie Jo Hunter and Beatrice (Chip) Sneed; son, Raymond (Norma) Williams; and sister, Ann Calvo. Grandchildren: JR, Dan, David, Dina and Laura Hunter; Bradley and Jason Williams; Chip Sneed, Bryan Snook, and Dr. Pam Fawsett. Dorothy is also survived by twelve great-grandchildren, 3 great-great-grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews.

We Want to Hear from You!
We’d love to add some input from our membership to the newsletter! Here are some ideas -

- Share an upcoming event or tell us what you like about an event you just attended.
- Review your favorite family tree software, website or podcast? Tell us why you like it!
- Share a brick wall - can someone help? Ask in the newsletter!

Please send any items of interest or feedback to our newsletter editor, Robin Raben:
newsletter@austintxgensoc.org.

2015 Writing Contest - get your ideas ready!
We will be announcing an AGS writing contest very soon. All submissions to the AGS Quarterly in 2015 will be considered in the contest, with winners announced in January 2016. Judging criteria and prizes will be announced in the next newsletter.

Please note: If you were looking for the minutes from the last board meeting, we’ve decided to publish them AFTER they’ve been reviewed and approved by the board (next meeting). You’ll see them in the May edition.
Memories and Appreciation on our 55th Birthday

We asked our members, “What is a favorite memory you have or what do you like most about being a member of AGS?” Here’s what some of them had to say:

I love the variety of topics covered at the monthly meetings, and the annual seminars are outstanding. I learn something new at every event.

Jan Pelosi

The monthly stimulation is great. My focus may drift to other things but each meeting I reset as I try to apply new things learned.

Glen Harrison

I have enjoyed the opportunity to be involved in the education program.

Nancy Stevens

I love the Quarterly. Until I joined the AGS, I had never published any family history. The old June Member’s issue made four-page articles easy, I’ve done 15-20 articles since 1989. I’ve had fun doing the research & writing, and it’s wonderful having copies on different topics to pass on to those interested.

The trip to SLC library was a highlight for me & I got to know fellow members better. I enjoy the meeting programs and learning more.

Marcia Arn

I love being surrounded by people that actually ENJOY talking about family history! I learn something new every time I'm with them!

Robin Raben

In the short time I have belonged I especially value the tours of the LBJ Library, the Texas Land Office, etc.

David Easterday

The trip to SLC library was a highlight for me & I got to know fellow members better. I enjoy the meeting programs and learning more! I’m a new member - just happy to be here.

Marcia Ann

Seminars! Great Speakers always!! Meetings! "Ditto"

Shirley Roberts

I'm a new member - just happy to be here.

Marcia Shults

I really enjoyed the seminar with Maureen Taylor. After the seminar, I emailed a photo of 2 mystery boys from my family and she posted about the photo on her blog. I still don't know who the boys in the photo are, but she gave me some hints on how to try and figure it out.

Erin Garcia

Terrific lecturers and lovely people. A happy learning experience. ☺

Dianne Holley

Whether it's a program, seminar, class or tour... you walk away with another genealogy gem of insight or knowledge. But what I like most are the friendships!

Carol Mason

I love the Quarterly. Until I joined the AGS, I had never published any family history. The old June Member's issue made four-page articles easy, I've done 15-20 articles since 1989. I've had fun doing the research & writing, and it's wonderful having copies on different topics to pass on to those interested.

Meeting and identifying a distant cousin I did not know existed. As a new member she identified who she was researching.

Richard Robertson

2015 is my first full year as a member. I have enjoyed the programs. I'm looking forward to the seminar with Judy Russell.

Teresa Devine

A memory of visiting the poorhouse in Bell County with my grandfather when I was about 6 years old. A story will follow for the AGS Quarterly.

Jim Bridges

Wonderfully informative meeting programs, workshops and newsletter. AGS fosters a real sense of community among those of us interested in genealogy.

Marsha Krause Patterson

* People willing to share information & suggestions on genealogy research.
* Positive spirit and friendly nature of most AGS members.

Unsigned

In the short time I have belonged I especially value the tours of the LBJ Library, the Texas Land Office, etc.

David Easterday

One fun memory I have about being a member of AGS is from my first trip to Salt Lake City about 12 years ago. We had just received our AGS embroidered chambray shirts. So it was easy to glance around the library and find others in our group in their blue shirts. Then one day the entire group went to the cafeteria wearing our AGS shirts. Everyone noticed us. It was a good trip.

Kay Boyd

Fun, Happy Members! Always a great evening for me. Learn many new ideas, concepts and learn more about technology. Plus - fun trips to great places, and great opportunities!

Friday Freebies at the National Archives at Fort Worth
The National Archives at Fort Worth hosts free genealogical workshops the first Friday of the month from 12:00 noon to 1:00 p.m. at our Montgomery Plaza location: 2600 West 7th Street, Suite 162, Fort Worth, Texas 76107.

For planned topics and registration go to: www.archives.gov/fort-worth/public/workshops.html

Austin History Center
Divided City: Civil War & Reconstruction in Austin

810 Guadalupe St., Austin, TX 78701

This exhibit explores how this moment in American History impacted our local community. Though no battles were fought here, the strains upon a divided nation at the time of the Civil War were deeply felt and experienced in Austin. Hundreds of photographs and original documents are on display to help visitors learn about and understand this period of our history and how it continues to influence our community today. The exhibit will be on display through June 21, 2015.

Podcasts.. Are You Listening? by Robin Raben
In the past year, I’ve discovered the joy of listening to Podcasts on my iPhone while driving around town. It’s like listening to the radio, but with the added feature of being able to pause, rewind or fast forward so you don’t have to miss a thing. I thought I’d share my genealogical favorites…

Genealogy Gems Podcast, by Lisa Louise Cook [lislouisecooke.com/podcasts/]
I discovered this one last year and I listen to it the most - there are over 170 episodes so I have a lot of catching up to do! I find that every episode is filled with interesting genealogical topics and great ideas. It inspires me in my own research. Lisa Louise Cook has a friendly style that makes this podcast easy to listen to. I like it so much that I’ve also become a member of her Genealogy Gems website and have subscribed to her blog. I imagine I’m not the only one in AGS that listens to this one! By the way, if you visit her site and sign up for her free newsletter you will receive a free 20 page ebook called 5 Fabulous Google Search Strategies for the Family Historian, in addition to finding a great free podcast!

The Genealogy Professional Podcast, by Marian Pierre-Louis [thegenalogyprofessional.com/category/podcast/]
I’m hardly a professional! I subscribed to this podcast last year but was a little intimidated by the title so I’ve only started to listen to it recently. Although it is geared toward those with their own professional practice, there are good recommendations for research resources and practices that I find useful as a beginner. I’m going to continue to listen to this one.

Hardcore History, by Dan Carlin [dancarlin.com/hardcore-history-series/]
I absolutely LOVE this podcast. Dan Carlin brings history alive with his dynamic storytelling style. I’ve been listening to his recounting of World War I (a total of 9 hours devoted to this topic thus far!) and am sad that I’ve made it to the end. This one might not be for everyone, it’s called “hardcore” for a reason - sometimes it can get pretty graphic. It’s not necessarily genealogical. If you want some interesting insights into history and an understanding of what your ancestors may have lived through, it’s great. My only complaint is that the episodes do not come out on a regular basis - the last one was published Dec. 30, 2014. Luckily there are 54 episodes so I have something to enjoy while I wait.
